INTEGRATING OFFICE PRINTING FUNCTIONS IN ONE DEVICE

DEDICATED PERFORMANCE WITH MULTI-FUNCTION FLEXIBILITY

The OKIOFFICE 86 is a complete communications centre within one compact desktop machine integrating vital office functions without compromising on performance.

This simple-to-use and highly economical timesaver will print, fax, scan and help you manage your documents. That's why it's the perfect machine for anyone wishing to deliver professional standards in a home working or small office environment.

PC PRINTING

This compact digital LED multi-function device produces Q600dpi printing at 8 pages per minute delivering high quality professional results required by today's office environment. The 100 sheet output tray and manual feeder tray allow a vast range of material to be printed.

HIGH-SPEED FAXING

The OKIOFFICE 86 guarantees quick faxing. Thanks to its high speed scanning, 33.6K modem and large memory it sends, receives and prints faxes in seconds. Dual access operation allows you to send or copy a document while simultaneously receiving a fax.

VERSATILE COPYING CAPABILITY

As well as a pin-sharp Q600 dpi output and 50 page multi-copy capacity, the copying function on an OKIOFFICE 86 will reduce/enlarge to 25-200%, has a 2-up and 4-up copying facility and lets you condense reports to save paper.

Receive a fax, edit and send it as an e-mail.

Thanks to the TWAIN compatible scanner with integrated OCR, the OKIOFFICE 86 lets you scan incoming faxes from your PC, convert them into digital files, edit them and then send them on as e-mails (or faxes). This is a major time saver in a busy office.
