Identifying cables
Your TV has several connection types for connecting devices. For the best video quality, connect a device to the best available connection.

| Connection type	Video quality	Cable connector
HDMI video/audio	Best
	OR
Component video and analog audio	Better
Composite video and analog audio	Good

You can use an HDMI jack to connect a DVI device to your TV. You need to attach an HDMI 1-to-DVI adapter to the end of the HDMI cable that connects to the DVI device's jack.

Antenna or cable TV (no box)

We recommend that you connect the AV receiver's HDMI OUT jack to your TV's HDMI IN (ARC) jack. In the following situations, the HDMI cable routes Dolby Digital audio to the AV receiver, so you do not need to connect a separate digital audio cable:
• Have a game console connected to one of your TV's HDMI IN jacks.
• When you watch a program through an antenna or cable TV connected to the ANT IN jack.

Setting up and using your remote control

1 Press the release button on the back of the remote to remove the battery compartment cover.

2 Insert two AAA batteries into the battery compartment. Make sure that the + and − symbols on the batteries match the + and − symbols in the battery compartment.

3 Replace the cover.
