

Boston Horizon HPS Powered Subwoofers

play deep. play smart.

Four new ways to meet the neighbors. Boston believes bass should be felt, as well as heard. That's why all Horizon powered subwoofers, including the wireless HPS 8Wi, feature large front-firing drivers with Boston's proprietary Deep Channel® Design (DCD) technology. And unlike conventional black-box subwoofers that aren't much to look at, HPS subwoofers share the stylish contemporary look of HS Series loudspeakers. So hold on to your popcorn. The turbulence is purely intentional.

Make it your own with optional interchangeable grilles, a Boston exclusive.

Boston Horizon Powered subwoofers

What it means to be from Boston.

Many manufacturers design speaker systems around third-party, off-the-shelf parts. Boston Acoustics engineers every component of every system to meet the highest performance standards (our own). Of course, performance is only one measure of value. So we're careful to build all our products with strict attention to everything from the choice of materials to the details of fit and finish. It's how we've been exceeding the expectations of serious listeners for nearly thirty years.

Raw power, refined.

There's no denying that HPS subwoofers are powerful, but they can't be confused with blunt instruments. The front baffles are gently curving surfaces. The woofer assemblies feature low-mass cones and the cabinets are extensively ribbed and braced with MDF to reduce unwanted resonances. And every model features a volume and crossover control to adjust performance to the acoustics of your room, and a phase switch to keep output in sync with your speakers. The result is deep, distortion-free bass that enhances (rather than overpowers) speaker performance — even at the highest output levels.
