Three-in-one remote for all brands

Whatever combination of TV, VCR or satellite/cable receiver you choose, the Perfect Replacement Universal remote handles them all. It works on all European brands too. Forget that table full of remotes!

Ready for digital cable and satellite services

Control your digital set-top box and satellite receiver from the same remote unit as the rest of your home entertainment gear. The Perfect Replacement Universal is as ready as you are for the latest in broadcasting services.

Perfect Replacement for lost or broken remotes

No delays if you break or lose a remote control. No long waits for an out-of-production remote for your faithful video equipment. The Perfect Replacement Universal remote works with all European brands.

Fast access to set-up menus and teletext

You can control everything from your armchair. There's a full range of teletext function buttons and easy access to set-up menus for the most important functions, like installation, and picture and sound adjustments.

Tough, shock-proof and water-resistant

The Perfect Replacement Universal remote can take the knocks of everyday life in an active home. Drop it – even splash drinks on it – and its tough, water-resistant housing means you can keep on zapping.

Ready for use in seconds

The set-up procedure is so straightforward, you'll be controlling your complete video installation in seconds – whatever brands you use. And for Philips equipment, it's simply press and go! The unique Philips Simple System Setup™ featuring handsfree autosearch takes the hard work out of getting the remote ready for action.

Function upgradeable

Don't worry if the Perfect Replacement Universal remote misses some of the original remote control's functions; these can be easily programmed via our helpdesk. Even new functions that appear with new equipment can easily be programmed in, ensuring that this remote control's functionality is always up to date!
