

ExecutiveTrend toploader

An elegant notebook bag in a classic design

The sophisticated interior of the ExecutiveTrend is equipped with two separately cushioned compartments: one compartment is designed for a Notebook, the other for a printer, projector or other mobile accessories.

The effective foam protection guarantees maximum security for your equipment. Additional integrated compartments in the interior offer room for documents and other mobile accessories can be easily placed in the zip-down workstation where there is also room for a PDA, mobile phone, CDs, etc.

The material mix made of high-quality Koskin emphasizes the classic design.
