An elegant 15" notebook case in city look, for businesswomen

The LadyAllure is the new 15" ladies' notebook case, in an elegant 'city' look. The notebook is safely protected in the padded notebook compartment, and additionally protected in transport by the integrated lid.

The notebook and documents can easily be inserted and removed using the top of the bag. The interior offers plenty of storage space for documents, power supply unit and other large items. Other documents and smaller accessories can be stowed away in the two outer pockets. A cream interior lining ends the lengthy searches for documents and everything is always in clear sight.

The LadyAllure comes with a small removable cosmetics case, including a small mirror.

This elegant case is available in classic black or beige. The look of the case is underlined by its high-quality, silver zipper, and leather optics (koskin). It also comes with a long shoulder strap for comfortable transportation.
