| USA                                           | NAME OF PRODUCT:Otteroo Inflatable Baby Floats UNITS: About 3,000 DESCRIPTIONThe Otteroo Inflatable Baby Float is an inflatable round ring made of clear and blue plastic material. It has two air chambers that fasten around a baby's neck with a white buckle. The floats have a chin rest, two handles and two circular openings on the back of the ring to allow the device to expand as the child grows with age. There are three colorful balls that move freely around inside the ring. The name "Otteroo" is imprinted on the top of the float in large, orange letters with an Otter logo. IMPORTERINone reported. MANUFACTURED IN: China  | HAZARD:The seam on the flotation device can leak air and deflate, posing a risk of drowning. INCIDENTS/INJURIESNone reported.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | Consumers should immediately stop using the recalled inflatable baby floats and contact the firm to receive a free replacement.                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| USA                                           | NAME OF PRODUCT:DaVinci Cribs UNITS: About 11,660 (in addition, 40 cribs were sold in Canada) DESCRIPTIONThe recall includes DaVinci brand full-size cribs including the Reagan crib (model #M2801), the Emily crib, (model #M4791), the Jamie crib (model #M7301), and the Jenny Lind crib (model #M7391) manufactured from May 2012 through December 2012. The model number, serial number and manufacture date are printed on a label affixed to the bottom right hand side panel of the crib. Cribs included in the recall have serial numbers that begin with "N00". IMPORTERNone reported MANUFACTURED IN: China                                                                                                                 | HAZARD:A metal bracket that connects the mattress support to the crib can break, creating an uneven sleeping surface or a gap. If this occurs, a baby can become entrapped in the crib, fall or suffer lacerations from the broken metal bracket. INCIDENTS/INJURIESThe firm has received 10 reports of the mattress support brackets detaching. No injuries have been reported. | Consumers should immediately stop using the recalled cribs and contact Bexco for a free replacement mattress support which includes replacement brackets. In the meantime, parents are urged to find an alternate, safe sleeping environment for the child, such as a bassinet, play yard or toddler bed depending on the child's age. |
