Sylvia's Scribblings...

Hello-o-o quilters! So much to share, and in no particular order:

We're sponsoring three days of demos at the Oregon State Fair this year. The demo booth, named after us, should be easy to find in the Jackman-Long building. Come see fun presentations from Karla, Jeanette, Janae, Lisa, myself and most of the rest of our staff. Demo times/teachers should be posted on the web and in the shop by the time you read this. (Dates on p.1)

If you're reading this early, there are a few more days to finish and enter your Artful Brassiere!

Sylvia's Scribblings continues on p. 7

FREE TO $5 CLASSES

LET'S GET STARTED: This class is about beginning basics, rotary cutting, achieving the perfect 1/4" seam, squaring up and pressing, but if you feel like you've missed some of this along the way, come make a patch or two!

FUN EVENTS & CONTESTS:

THE PRINCESS & THE PEA BLOCK OF THE MONTH: Well this should certainly please the picky princess: the peas will be all over the top of her bed instead of poking, prodding and pestering her from underneath. And if an ugly stepsister doesn't come along to irritate her, a wolf doesn't blow her house down, or she doesn't eat a half-poison apple, she'll be around to appreciate your clever use of bright pastels with just a pea salad's worth of princely chartreuse tucked in to make the block live happily ever after. Please remember the rules of the Quilted Kingdom: first block free; the rest free if you turn them in before the clock strikes one, otherwise, turn a room full of fat quarters into gold or give us $1. Princely and Princessly prizes: one $50 Full Can of Peas Gift Certificate, one Half-empty and one Half-full Can o' Peas $25 Gift Certificate. Sorry, dates with the Prince were not available. Starts September 1st.

STATE FAIR DEMOS: Come see us at the QuiltedForest.com CREATIVITY WITH FABRIC Demonstration Booth in the Jackman-Long Building across from the entrance to the Quilt Walk.

Sat., Aug 29 & Sun., Aug 30th, from 10 am to 10 pm & Tues., Sept 1 from 10 am to 9 pm. Lists of demos and /or their teachers on the web or in the shop.

BEAUTIFUL BARGELLO: ...is back, and the “beauty rest” definitely paid off! House of White Birches has compiled 7 wonderful projects (from beginners to advanced) by leading bargello designers, and the results are “music for your eyes” from simple songs to full-blown symphonies. Whether it’s your first time with one of the most intriguing quilting techniques ever, or you’re ready to push your experience further, you’ll be enchanted by the wonderful offerings of this book, made even better by the informed and gentle guidance of Heather Costello.

Instructor: Heather Costello Tuition: $49.00 LP Tuition: $39.00

☾ Wed., Oct. 14, 21, 28 ☰ 6 to 9 pm

Suggested Book: Beautiful Bargello

COLOR SHUFFLE WITH KARLA ALEXANDER: One of our favorite teachers has done it again, creating a new book filled with exciting new designs to delight her many fans! Make the most of today’s fabulous fabrics with these contemporary quilts—the stunning designs look far more complicated than they actually are. You know that Karla’s classes exemplify “best practices” in teaching: never a dull moment, learning that involves no pain and lots of laughs, and getting to work with an expert in superb slice-and-dice blocksacology!

Instructor: Karla Alexander Tuition: $59.00 LP Tuition: $49.00

☾ Tue., Nov. 3, 10, 17, 24 ☰ 6 to 9 pm

Suggested Book: Color Shuffle

ANCIENT WAYS FOLK ART EMBROIDERY: Jaiaen Beck of Lacombe, Oregon will share with us the simple embroidery techniques that she shared in Zimbabwe to not only help the Zimbabweans retain their indigenous culture, but give the women a means of income as well. Jaiaen will help you create your own “Oregon Folk Art” blocks, so that you, too, can capture the spirit—the wildlife, the plants, the places—that make Oregon the special place that it is.

Instructor: Jaiaen Beck Tuition: $49.00

☾ Sat., Oct. 17 ☰ 10 am to 4 pm

Suggested Pattern: Folk Art Embroideries

FATHER CHRISTMAS: He’s never looked kinder, warmer or more charming. Join Pat Domogalla and create your own 12-15” tall symbol of the season. Wearing a pieced and fur-trimmed long coat, twinkling eyes peering out from his curly white hair, both arms bearing baskets of tiny gifts, Father Christmas will be a joy to make and a family heirloom for years to come. Come see our kit options for armature, trims, hair and beard as well as handmade clay heads and hands. You can check the instructor’s website at www.pdchristmascreations.com for more inspiration.

LP Tuition: $49.00

FUNKY FOUR PATCH WITH KARLA:

Uneven, off-kilter, crooked, slightly bent; what is it we’re talking about here? Oh yeah, the four-patch redux, with the redux by Karla, which means you make fours out of threes and have a good time doing so, your blocks aren’t even and that’s okay, and you create a piece of huggable artwork without even knowing you’re an artist. All that, and it’s easy, too!

Instructor: Karla Alexander Tuition: $45.00

☾ Sat., Nov. 7 ☰ 10:30 am to 5:30 pm

Suggested Pattern: Funky 4 Patch

LP Tuition: $35.00

HALLOWEEN TREE: Twinkle, twinkle little tree, filled with pumpkins just for me! Halloween merriment doesn’t get better than when giggling jack-o-lanterns and wispy ghosts dangle from an autumn tree twinkling with little lights. Come learn the tricks that will let this treat light up your Halloween for years to come!

Instructor: Cheryl Ennis

Tuition: $45.00 LP Tuition: $35.00

PINOT PIECING: Does it get any better? Sylvia will demo some of our greatest hits: Purslets, Casserole Covers, aprons and more while you sip a variety of wines in the ambiance of Alessandro’s Italian Restaurant, just down the street from Greenbaum’s. Sure, we’ll have to snack, sure, we’ll have to talk and laugh and not pay attention, but you’ll also get professional tips, design ideas, and nifty new techniques. Prost!

Instructor: Sylvia Dorney Tuition: $18.00

☾ Thur., Oct. 22 ☰ 6 to 7:30 pm

CAROL SMITH’S LOFT: RUGMAKING AND MUCH MORE: Yeah, we wished we lived there, too. But at least you’ll get to snack and enjoy the Loft Life as you hook your rug, placemat, book cover or bag in style under Lorraine’s adept tutelage. Theresa Pulido’s new book has 31 diverse projects, utilizing everything from ribbons, beads and mohair to recycled plastic bags! Pick the project that’s perfect for you; we’ve got the perfect place to start it!

INTERNET MYSTERY SCRAPPY SAMPLER III: An internet Block of the Month. Even a good mystery is better with a theme: Did she do it with Batiks? Did 1930's or Brights lead her down the path of intrigue? Was the butler responsible for the shockingly beautiful reds and blacks? Join us for six months of secretive sewing, deciphering subtly placed clues (oh, okay the clues are easy...) Print out clue sheets, once a month, September through March, you'll crack the case and come up with a lap quilt that reveals that someone was guilty of making six different blocks from an awesome set of scraps! (We'll have clue sheets in the shop for those not connected.) www.quiltedforest.com Free Patterns

CLASS POLICY: Please Pre-Register for Classes 503-363-7973 or Toll Free 1-877-700-2233. Payment of fees assures a place in class until we reach the maximum # of students. Tickets are on sale now for our 9th Annual Quilted Cottage Tour Sunday October 4th

Travel to four homes laden with quilts. Try your luck at winning a donation quilt and of course drop into the shop where we will have guest quilts on display. Get your ticket stamped at all six locations and you will be eligible to win a sewing machine donated by Whitlock's Sew and Vac. Net proceeds of this event will be donated to H.A.N.S. (Help Autism Now Society.) You'll really enjoy helping us sponsor this event! Home Tour Tickets tour are on sale now at $15 each, 2 for $25.

Directions and more info in the tour brochure, presented at the time of purchase. Entry forms for challenges and quilt show are available in the shop or on our web page: www.quiltedforest.com, click on Quiltopia 2009 on the homepage. To order tickets click on Classes and Events.

We're still going to Tuscany in October of 2010. The itinerary is up! Join us for 10 days of fun for $3695.00. Sign up at www.sewmanyplaces.com, click on "online reservations," in the upper right corner and they'll call you back for credit card info.

We loved the African themed embroidered blocks so much we asked Jaïen Beck, the founder of the non profit Ancient Ways, and the one who taught these Zimbabwean women, to teach us these basic, but endearing stitches with local folk art theme ideas. The stitches are done on basic black calico and we are eagerly awaiting our new DMC rack of floss. Don't miss this class; she's a busy lady.

Karla's new book, Color Shuffle, is due off the press in October; look for her class in this schedule and we'll have pre-sales of the book, 20% off if you order before it arrives. I know that's a sight un-seen thing for a few of you, but enough of us know her or her style to make this promotion a lot of fun!

Quiltopia is coming! Enter your quilts in our Show at the Mill or the Chartreuse Chameleon Challenge show at the Beanery, then, bring your friends out to see them. We love quilts made in our classes or "for-sale" at the show, don't be shy. Then, buy a ticket for the 9th Quilted Cottage Tour. The net proceeds go to help children with autism and we guarantee you'll be inspired to make new creations after you see these houses laden with quilts. One ticket holder wins a brand spankin' new sewing machine donated by Whitlocks Sew and Vac, better odds than the lottery, this is a good deal at last year's prices, $15 or two for $25. Also, check page 7 for two Quiltopia drawings.

We just finished classroom testing the new Mystery Scrappy Sampler III for the Internet. The first (September) block is up now and will continue October through March. A big thanks to my helpful students, the quilts are beautiful and several plan to be done and hung at our fall show at the Mill. (Click on FREE PATTERNS, www.quiltedforest.com)

If you're reading this before school starts, wander in any Thursday before 1pm and see the quilt campers finishing their twin sized quilts. Their color choices, and use of our fun designer fabrics has been phenomenal. And, of course, more of that fun fabric keeps arriving, too many collections to mention, but the Christmas groups are here and already cutting, with better than ever design combinations, how can they keep doing that?

Most of this flyer is about classes; we know you'll love the new ones and the other great ones are back. Remember the free classes fill quickly and look for the 4 new projects we've added to the Gifts Class. Read on, check out the Pinot Piecing and keep on quilting.

FALL CLASSES 2009

BOOK REVIEWS

LIVIN' LARGE

by Heather Mulder Peterson $17.99

Eleven terrific designs for those bold and beautiful large scale prints. Several table runners and even a baby quilt enhance the beauty of the fabric without cutting it into small pieces. Fun sassy quilts in a reasonably priced package, great for quick gifts or to add a fun new easy artsy looking quilt to your own décor.

The Best APRON BOOK Ever
 edited by Julie Johnson $14.95

Great designs, from classic to vintage. These patterns are flexible and cover a wide range of sizes; you'll be sure to find more than one fun style to make. We've ordered extra as we can't seem to keep this book in stock.

SEW WITH SARA

by Sara Trail $19.95

PJs, pillows, bags and more, this is a great book to use as a guide if you are helping a teen to sew this summer, or as a gift for a beginning sewer. Sara offers ideas for selling handmade gifts to family, friends and at fairs. Directions are clear with lots of pictures, safety tips and helpful "hints". Oh, did I mention, Sara is 13! Her bio makes this believable! Come take a look, the projects have a youthful fun style that makes you want to whip one up.
