Mediterranean restaurant across street

APPROX. TIME 'SPENT':

10 Minutes

APPROX. DATE(S) OF ACTIVITY:

May 10, 2015

OUTCOMES / RESULTS:

-Intern leaves apartment for first time in 24 hours

-Wallet lighter than before Task #41

NOTES ('OPTIONAL'):

-Intern too overwhelmed by looming Task
#42 to consume foodstuffs

-Intern sets hot food aside, resigned
to eat when appetite has returned after completion of Task #42

TASK (X):

42

TITLE / NAME:

Format of "Texts"

DESCRIPTION:

"Texts" made to resemble text messages as closely as possible by way of tedious and time-consuming formatting processes

APPROX. TIME 'SPENT':

3 Hours

APPROX. DATE(S) OF ACTIVITY:

May 10, 2015

OUTCOMES / RESULTS:

- "Texts" doc formatted successfully

NOTES ('OPTIONAL'):

- Intern feels unexpected swelling of pride that Intern thinks must equate to what a parent experiences when watching their child graduate from High school at top of class

- Intern remembers Intern's own lackluster High School career

- Intern remembers it is Mother's Day

- Intern remembers hunger

TASK (X):

43

TITLE / NAME:

1 Hour

APPROX. DATE(S) OF ACTIVITY:

May 10, 2015

OUTCOMES / RESULTS:

- “Emails” doc updated
- Mistakes made during completion of Task #32 repaired

NOTES (‘OPTIONAL’):

- Intern continues struggle begun during Task #29 to navigate Word’s reluctance to accept links embedded in emails into body of “Emails”
- Intern unsure, but thinks that Word is punishing Intern for abuse sustained during compilation of “Emails” by producing ghost-text every time Intern copy/pastes into “Emails”

TASK (X):

46

TITLE / NAME:

“Timesheet” Updating

DESCRIPTION:

Updating of Timesheet

APPROX. TIME ‘SPENT’:

1.5 Hours

APPROX. DATE(S) OF ACTIVITY:

May 10, 2015

OUTCOMES / RESULTS:

- “Timesheet” updated
- Intern struck by disbelief upon logging of Task #46: Intern debates possibility of alien abduction to explain length of time spent completing Task #46 and said length of time’s inconsistency with Intern’s sense of passage of time.

NOTES (‘OPTIONAL’):

- Intern completes Task #46 in bewilderment
- Intern realizes format of “Timesheet” section “APPROX. TIME ‘SPENT’” is inconsistent with timestamp format utilized in “Texts” and “Emails”
- Intern decides to begin revision to “Timesheet” section “APPROX. TIME ‘SPENT’” by replacing Intern’s personal date format (“10may2015”) with standard format (May 10, 2015)
- Intern immediately recognizes similar inconsistency with references to chapter previously titled “timesheet”
- Intern curses Intern as Intern decides to repair inconsistencies by changing “timesheet” to “ ”Timesheet” ”

TASK (X):

47

TITLE / NAME:

“Timesheet” Inconsistencies

DESCRIPTION:

Repair of inconsistencies discovered in “Timesheet” outlined in “NOTES (‘OPTIONAL’)” section of Task #47

2:00-2:30

Met with TT. Thumb drive containing all pdf books labeled (TT BKS) and designated by TT as Greatest Object to Exist, Ever.

Went over list of issues discovered on tumblr catalogue.

Listened to TT gripe about editor Chris

Sylvester's inability upload books properly.
Slanderous comments made about his person as Intern stayed silent in the corner. Joey fixed Chris' links;
Joey labeled by Holly as "enabler".

(The World fixed. Congrats, Joey. Someone should let the UN know.)

Listened to Drake's new album. Unanimous verdict of album's worth still undecided.

2:30-3:00

learned about "gutter issues", learned that this has nothing to do with drainage architecture.

trolled internet forums looking for answers.
not very helpful.

caused by Task #38 with trip out window onto Intern's fire escape for purpose of satisfying Intern's nicotine addiction

APPROX. TIME 'SPENT':

15 Minutes

APPROX. DATE(S) OF ACTIVITY:

May 10, 2015

OUTCOMES / RESULTS:

- First cigarette of break smoked
- First cigarette of break deemed insufficient in satisfying Intern's
nicotine addiction
- Second cigarette of break smoked
- Intern belatedly remembers what sunlight
feels like

NOTES ('OPTIONAL'):

- Intern discovers that sunlight and nicotine cannot completely dispel mental lethargy
- Intern remembers the eventual need to eat

TASK (X):

41

TITLE / NAME:

Buying Lunch

Mediterranean restaurant across street

APPROX. TIME 'SPENT':

10 Minutes

APPROX. DATE(S) OF ACTIVITY:

May 10, 2015

OUTCOMES / RESULTS:

-Intern leaves apartment for first time in 24 hours

-Wallet lighter than before Task #41

NOTES ('OPTIONAL'):

-Intern too overwhelmed by looming Task
#42 to consume foodstuffs

-Intern sets hot food aside, resigned
to eat when appetite has returned after
completion of Task #42

TASK (X):

42

TITLE / NAME:

Format of "Texts"

DESCRIPTION:

"Texts" made to resemble text messages as closely as possible by way of tedious and time-consuming formatting processes

APPROX. TIME 'SPENT':

3 Hours

APPROX. DATE(S) OF ACTIVITY:

May 10, 2015

OUTCOMES / RESULTS:

- "Texts" doc formatted successfully

NOTES ('OPTIONAL'):

- Intern feels unexpected swelling of pride that Intern thinks must equate to what a parent experiences when watching their child graduate from High school at top of class

- Intern remembers Intern's own lackluster High School career

- Intern remembers it is Mother's Day

- Intern remembers hunger

TASK (X):

43

TITLE / NAME:

DESCRIPTION:

Updating and editing of “Emails” doc with previously overlooked/misplaced emails to/from Intern

APPROX. TIME ‘SPENT’:

1 Hour

APPROX. DATE(S) OF ACTIVITY:

May 10, 2015

OUTCOMES / RESULTS:

- “Emails” doc updated
- Mistakes made during completion of Task #32 repaired

NOTES (‘OPTIONAL’):

- Intern continues struggle begun during Task #29 to navigate Word’s reluctance to accept links embedded in emails into body of “Emails”
- Intern unsure, but thinks that Word is punishing Intern for abuse sustained during compilation of “Emails” by producing ghost-text every time Intern copy/pastes into “Emails”

TASK (X):

46

TITLE / NAME:

“Timesheet” Updating

DESCRIPTION:

Updating of Timesheet

APPROX. TIME ‘SPENT’:

1.5 Hours

APPROX. DATE(S) OF ACTIVITY:

May 10, 2015

OUTCOMES / RESULTS:

- “Timesheet” updated
- Intern struck by disbelief upon logging of Task #46: Intern debates possibility of alien abduction to explain length of time spent completing Task #46 and said length of time’s inconsistency with Intern’s sense of passage of time.

NOTES (‘OPTIONAL’):

- Intern completes Task #46 in bewilderment
- Intern realizes format of “Timesheet” section “APPROX. TIME ‘SPENT’” is inconsistent with timestamp format utilized in “Texts” and “Emails”
- Intern decides to begin revision to “Timesheet” section “APPROX. TIME ‘SPENT’” by replacing Intern’s personal date format (“10may2015”) with standard format (May 10, 2015)
- Intern immediately recognizes similar inconsistency with references to chapter previously titled “timesheet”
- Intern curses Intern as Intern decides to repair inconsistencies by changing “timesheet” to “ ”Timesheet” ”

TASK (X):

47

TITLE / NAME:

“Timesheet” Inconsistencies

DESCRIPTION:

-Completed “NOTES (‘OPTIONAL’)” section of task 26

-Realized that Intern had drunk C. Sylvester’s Cool-Aid, or else fell out of touch with Intern’s sanity

NOTES (‘OPTIONAL’):

-After editing Task #8, Intern remembered Intern had saved some of the ice cream mentioned in said task

-Intern ate ice cream to make Intern feel brief sensation of happiness

-Intern of Task #47 curses Intern of Task#36 to be an ineffectual and careless dolt

-During completion of Task #47, drunk neighbors on roof played song “Anybody but You” on acoustic guitar continuously

from 12:15 AM until 1:30 AM Monday morning

- Intern develops hatred for aforementioned song, and extreme dislike for Intern's drunk neighbors
- Intern resists urge to look over
"Timesheet" again for purpose of checking
for inconsistencies
- Intern shocked at Intern, tells Intern
to go to bed

H. Melgard

Hi [Intern], this is Holly Melgard from Troll Thread. I talked to Joey and Chris and we would all be thrilled for you to intern for TT! Question: are you planning on being at Alice Notley's reading tonight at the St. Mark's Poetry Project at 8pm? (Obvs don't go out of your way if you already have other plans--just thought it'd be a great to introduce you to joey. Chris lives in Buffalo. Either way, we would love to meet up this weekend, skype with Chris and to go over some planning, etc.

Intern

Yeah I'll be there with some of the class,
I'll either run into you or text you when I arrive. This weekend would be great, I'm moving around on Friday so sat or Sunday
would be swell Wherever or whenever. Yes!
Excited!

Wed, April 15, 11:38 PM
Intern

My blog=poetry. I've got over a year of stuff on there, but it gets better as you get past the shit I did for Gail's class. [Intern's poetry blog]

H. Melgard

Hi [Intern (misspelled)]--I did get your text, we've just been in perpetual motion all day. Sorry for delay. Yes, thrilled to see you at 1 and for all! We live a few blocks north of the 25th street station on the R line--at [identifying information redacted]. The buzzer doesn't work so just text when u arrive. Will this work for u? We are flexible.

Intern

Yup perfect. I'll text you then.

H. Melgard

Boosh. Yay!

Sat, April 18, 12:57 PM
Intern

Here!

H. Melgard

Yay! One sec sorry

Intern

Hey Joey, intern here. Just checkin in, letting you know that I'll be heading over in a couple hours... Honestly still need to grab sustenance and caffeine, I'll text you when I've got a better ETA. I'll bring my laptop, anything else?

J. Yearous-Algozin

Hey, all u need is yr laptop. Lemme know when to expect u.

Intern

Around two? I'll text when I catch the train.
Hope that's not too late.

J. Yearous-Algozin

No that's fine

Intern

Sweet

Intern

Tricky service. Unable to text at the train, see you in 5 ish.

Intern

H. Melgard

Hi [Intern]! (Holly here. So I'm visiting this thig at the Met with u guys today. I'm in te lobby. R u here?

Intern

On the steps!

Thurs, April 23, 5:02 PM
Intern

Could have sworn we agree we're meeting Monday's... But Saturday? I'm down just confused and checking.

H. Melgard

I thought Joey's meeting w u this last Monday was a one time thing, but I'll double check w the group. Doing it Saturdays means we can collaborate with Chris (who works 6 days a week and is less accessible otherwise)

Intern

Absolutely. Just lemme know and I'll be there.

Thurs, April 23, 7:12 PM
H. Melgard

Yeah no probs will do. Joey doesn't get off work til 9p on Thursdays, so I'll get back to u tomorrow after I check in w him. But I'm like 90% sure our plan is for 1p this Sat at least for this week. Of course just let us know in advance if u need to reschedule for a different time. Meanwhile, good seeing you today!

Ps: also If for whatever reason I forget to follow up, don't hesitate to text to remind/re-ask. I'm the worlds worst follow-upper!

Intern

totes, fo sho, suresies and good to see you too!

Can't do tomorrow

J. Yearous-Algozin

Monday

Intern

Received. Groovy.

Mon, April 27, 9:51 AM
H. Melgard

Hi guys! Question: what time are we meeting today?

J. Yearous-Algozin

I can do one o'clock if that works for everyone.

H. Melgard

One works for me too. When is good for u
[Intern]?

Intern

One is great.

H. Melgard

Ok sounds good. Yay see u then!

Intern

What time tomorrow? One?

Sat, May 2, 6:06 AM
Intern

As we didn't set a time for our meeting this week, and I didn't hear back from yall, (texted Joey around noon yesterday) AND bc I haven't gotten any sleep yet- unless I get a call from you in the early afternoon saying otherwise, I'll expect to see you later today, sun or Monday. Hope I don't wake you up with this.

Sat, May 2, 9:12 AM
H. Melgard

No prob, [Intern]. Yes do sleep. Sorry so slow to respond. I've been bedridden-sick and still pretty sick today. Without exposing u to any gross germs, let's just meet Monday at 1p to be safe. Text to confirm when u r awake. Meanwhile, sleep!!! Thanks so much for your patience :)

Sat, May 2, 11:00 AM
Intern

Of course! Rest well, feel better, let m know when we will meet up again!

J. Yearous-Algozin

Yes--we'll plan for Monday at 1pm.

Monday, May 4, 11:14 AM
Intern

Morning yall, just lettin you know I may be up to an hour late, hopefully less. I hope you're feeling better, Holly!

H. Melgard

Thanks [Intern], I am feelin better! Good to know. Looking forwar to seeing u soon :)

Monday, May 4, 1:26 PM
Intern

10blocks away, see you soon.

H. Melgard

Yay! Just text when downstairs and we'll buzz
u up

Filling out time sheet. Although taking more time than expected, intern has come to realization that CSylvester's time sheet format is brilliant. Pages being produced. Intern retracts previous statements about time sheet limiting comedic effect.

H. Melgard

Heh heh awesome

Tragedy strikes: roommate severed cord of old gen MacBook charger. Will be doing my best to get a new one by this weekend, but for now, all TT work (including placeholder-creation for new book) will be put on hold until computer can be charged. I will be going into the city tomorrow with the intent of finding a charger, but as it is old gen, acquiring a new one may be difficult. If you have any suggestions of places to go outside of the obvious (Mac Store), please let me know. On the plus side, before this happened I completed the time sheet, which successfully translated 2pgs of notes into over 20pgs of publishable work. (It looks hella good)

H. Melgard

Oh sorry to hear that! Don't worry about setting up the klotzman book on lulu. It's still not done on our end and is taking forever.

H. Melgard

You know, Joey had a computer like that one (same as mine, right?) before the cat dumped coffee on it. Earlier this year He's holding onto it in hopes of rescuing the years of photos and writing still trapped in it. He'd probs let u borrow his chord until u find one in the city. If I find it, want me to bring it tomorrow? (I'll b at Rizzoli's)

Intern

Yes please! That would be perfect!

H. Melgard

Make sure it says “60W MagSafe” on your old power adapter. That’s the kind we have. Let me know if not. Using the wrong wattage power adapter on your macbook makes your battery loose it’s ability to hold a charge after a while, and there are a bunch of different ones for te same gen of computer.

H. Melgard

Intern

Yup same one. The plug looks like this, yes?

Intern

H. Melgard

It's got that

H. Melgard

60W?

Intern

Yup and sick.

Wed, May 6, 10:03 PM
H. Melgard

I've been looking but still haven't found it.
I'll keep digging. Let me know if another alternative crops up

Intern

Bollux. Okay, I'll let you know, but if you can't find it imma have to just go out and track one down either tomorrow before class (unlikely) or Friday. Don't break your back over it- I'll make it work.

Thurs, May 7, 12:37 PM
H. Melgard

There are lots of shops on canal in china town that carry all kinds of knock offs of things like that but I wouldn't recommend cuz if it's not the exact right kind it'll weaken your battery. We have amazon prime, so let us know if u want to use our free orrynight shipping to order a new one

Intern

I found a shop in Brooklyn that is open till 7 today and has them, I'm gonna nab a new one after class or tomorrow morning. So! Delayed, but not indefinitely!

Fri, May 8, 2:56 PM
Intern

Can you have Chris send Intern an email saying that he changed his mind again and wants the time sheets completed in the originally proposed format?

Sat, May 9, 11:02 PM
Intern

Also, rough draft docs uploaded to drive.

Sat, May 9, 11:20 PM
H. Melgard

Oh amazing. Thanks [Intern]! I saw it and it is amazing! Question: why not include all texts and emails we've exchanged? Just an idea

Intern

I included all emails to and from Intern, but I can update with emails from my other accounts as well. And then another chapter: texts. I'll get it done tomorrow. May leave off creating the master doc until our meeting Monday, as I can't figure out how to get the spreadsheet added to a master doc. Plus I still have to get my poems compiled and sent to you tomorrow, and then update the thumb drive. So. Intern will be busy this Sunday.

Intern

My only concern with adding texts and emails is the removal of Intern's anonymity by revealing my name too soon. I'd like it to just be a footnote at the very end of text, like:

Intern X = [Intern]

Just above the Troll Thread 2015 tag. So should I go through and substitute my name for Intern on those emails/texts?

H. Melgard–J. Yearous–Algozin–Intern

Sun, May 10, 7:57 PM
Intern

1pm tomorrow? Resolved issues mentioned to holly via text. Finishing formatting of doc containing entire body of texts between TT and Intern... It looks hot as fuxk. Will upload to google drive in next hour or so, hope that's not too late--- I know holly said she wanted to see the docs before tomorrow.

H. Melgard

That is awesome. Thanks for uploading!

Mon, May 11, 10:25 AM
H. Melgard

Also, yes! Looking forward to seeing u at 1

heard recently that commune editions or someone had acquired an intern troll thread had an intern once his name was 'Phil' I guess what follows constitutes maybe a cautionary tale re: installing rendering service to whatever unspeakable forces or powers, Old and Last Things, such as 'Intern' but perhaps it is too late yes of course it is too late TITLE: POEMS ABT 'INTERN' AND 'PHIL' THE INTERN;

POEM ABT 'INTERN' AND 'PHIL' THE INTERN 01, INTERN_ BINDER1;

of events surrounding liquidation of 'Phil' [...]

discourses numbingly hopeless grotesque [...]

poor quality therefore-though certainly not intended to be-a boon to us as well [...]

meager consolations all [...]

clear and direct account of so-called 'installation' of 'Intern' only further debasement of whatever target [...]

supposed 'motives' of said three principle or primary participants (human 'actors' 'agents' 'service providers') [...]

wishing each of them in turn the worst [...]
first among subsequent victims of course [...]
a belated and ultimately useless warning [...]
from all indication our world—or the ability to maintain said world—has already ended and it is just now that we (human things) are hearing of its ending
if there is no comfort to be found here it is because for ‘us’ comfort is henceforth disallowed (to say nothing of mercy) [...]
cling tight oh reader to what little whatever you might have left.

POEM ABT 'INTERN' AND 'PHIL' THE INTERN 03, 'Intern'
placement / provision;
of course it is 'Intern' whose name
is carried on what fetid breath
issued by the opening of such places that exist only
'to be opened' and always to the detriment of those who do so open them—
escapes upon their opening at the first breach and as
the
first fact of an immanent or emergent foulness, a First Foulness available at (or as) those same places where blackness folds in or rubs out (or through) places whose only afforded position is again and always 'unfortunately to be opened.'
and so it is that 'Intern' in its turn is positioned—finally—as the first such place or 'in the first place'—
though obviously after the fact of the word's issuance real-time (as it were) or its arrival as
'first contact'
in any number of forms of course
as the production or consequence of said 'first contact' ('a name disclosed by way of opening')—the first note of that rubbing through or out, certainly, but also indication of primary status granted 'Intern'
as a first figure or target of
said First Foulness, First and Last Name
and as for those who come to occupy its place
—the ones marked by that name
the openers producing that name by their opening outward of an unending folded in blackness perpetually and only afforded as 'to be opened (sooner or later as if by fate)' and which therefore discloses nothing but said name like a curse stinking of unearthly decay—despite facts such as those thus indicated or enrolled under 'Intern' in the First Instance or as the same deserve only pity while such is obvious

it is nonetheless the case that those unfortunates nonetheless absolutely and in every instance stand withheld from 'the pitiable' they are the lamentable surely and only the lamentable
thanks precisely to the twist of their suffering in
the place of 'Intern'
or as the place of 'Intern' divorced from all one black and fetid tendril of that First Foulness always worse for all involved and uninvolved and requiring of any one of us our total enrollment without of course itself ever requiring same

IMAGE: as3.png

POEM ABT 'INTERN' AND 'PHIL' THE INTERN 04;
the relaxation of 'Phil' as in a slow dispersal or a kind of 'bleed' of 'Phil' his dilution and eventual whatever disappearance
like an antbird or some other kind of ant following bird upon entering or exiting a zone or fragment anyway a still operational place persisting only as a vector in decline of itself or whatever himself or again whatever yeah a kind of 'Phil-bleed' into u as amensal locale or neighborhood or full-stop or as in a solution
'Intern'

POEM ABT 'INTERN' AND 'PHIL' THE INTERN 05;
can there be delicacy or elegance of approach re: u
'Intern' something closer to his careful rolling up of the whole damn thing and sticking it in some hole closer at least than the parade of pointless human fucking thereby allowed-permitted and inaugurated by stupid quadruple wedding-in the dream u were like LinkedIn a massively-distributed self-prompting coupling-matrix and every human thing yeah fruit right because no elegance available before u 'Intern'; awkward suffering to stand of the blood sick and/or human children

POEM ABT 'INTERN' AND 'PHIL' THE INTERN 06;
foreignness of the pedestal—crudely shaped rock worn smooth by time and wrought as if expecting said smoothness—is evident in its color a shade never meant for human regard and only describable as a vinegar for the eye
all of which speaks to the wretchedness of what this pedestal was—and still is—meant to support and display or come to support and display (as it was meant to welcome and exhibit the accumulated afflictions of time):
'Intern,' or any human thing that has been enrolled
as prop for same
oh what horrid devotion—what measured and slavish
delight—enthusiasm for one's own annihilation exhibited
required to assemble or fabricate such a stage or scaffolding in any case a zone that would persist maintained as to be occupied by 'Intern'—that name given to what for human is only ever total and caustic indifference—leveling wave or vector forming itself out from itself marking itself out as it 'passes'
and in 'passing' posing and disposing of what it thus levels forever and always
'us' in the sense of each and every human thing or human instance—likewise us its only evidence

POEM ABT 'INTERN' AND 'PHIL' THE INTERN 07;
a dilapidation of the soul or blighting like what's his name 'Phil' given u
'Intern' an unfortunate whatever curdling where soul functions a kind of exo-rigging or locational dressage real like heaven
is real or a sort of fixing/patching

anyway placement for invasive wedge henceforth to expand at an alien tho persistent rate
re-zoning of permission or affordance effects withering at root for 'human' or any given specimen of same passing over an affliction of features and generic coordinates swarms of afflictions perfecting disappearance best described as 'both total and leaky'

POEM ABT 'INTERN' AND 'PHIL' THE INTERN 08;
'Intern'-poem is a retreat before u-a squid-like backward going or anxious squirting
that with every other cephalopod is marked for or by extinction-its ink sucked behind it going with it without notice or consequence-leaving only slime or residue of its already accomplished
and tentacular cessation

POEM ABT 'INTERN' AND 'PHIL' THE INTERN 09;
knowing nothing of pottery, but with some small understanding of 'Intern'
and dogs
as lamentable horizon
permitting a distinct
disinterest even spitefulness re:
human fabrication no matter what 'medium'
prompted and preempted relieved of art afforded so faire a day of Doome

POEM ABT 'INTERN' AND 'PHIL' THE INTERN 10;
but people say talk too much
that there are rules like three second rules
but 'Intern'
it is all for u like 'Intern' it is all for get rid of those people and all the other ones also get rid of
get rid of every person
all the people

get rid of all of them

POEM ABT 'INTERN' AND 'PHIL' THE INTERN 11, full
relaxation of 'Intern';
& so 'Intern' was gone or left and no one left was capable of description
like exactly how it had disappeared
tho they were all looking right at it at that time it is maybe this fact—this like 'pointed blindness'—proves revealing re: 'Intern'
which hasn't at all vanished never having been 'not there' in the First (and Last) Instance or stages the revelation of 'Intern' as curse—an operational curse tragically stupid affair etc. a curse because it is always suffered no matter what—suffered by each and every human thing or so long as at least one instance of 'human'
persists
an old curse but unfortunately always true: 'for they have eyes so that they do not see'
'Intern' being the First Name of this curse and its Last Name also of course the product and source let us remain consistent explore conclusions
so:
there has been and will be 'Intern' given the persistence of at least one human thing
as minimal fact of said human thing's inescapable
'operational weakness'
a persistence which with any luck
soon to be dispatched or dispensed with

IMAGE: as4.png

POEM ABT 'INTERN' AND 'PHIL' THE INTERN 12;
having to explain that 'Intern' is a kind of crack
or fissure in the ground that smokes that you shove things into because afraid or scared things like bodies / 'Phil'
'Intern' demands and then just takes and takes w/out end or in the end will have always been taking hisses 'open' even as u move to open request

flourish of staging gagging on whatever like flesh or smoke from burning flesh

POEM ABT 'INTERN' AND 'PHIL' THE INTERN 13;
the issue of: and to what 'Intern' do I compare-like what likeness or installation do u demand-not that the question would bring back for instance 'Phil'
his being irreversibly chopshopped by unavoidable
flat definition
this is not a question can't be since 'Intern'
issues only as 'demand' and so affords or permits no
other likenesses
other than the many and sundry figures of submission
always evidentiary variations thematically repugnant
in their unlimited capacity for dampening complexity or intrication across all levels-hints of which glimpsed
in what remains of again for example 'Phil'
inescapable strip-mining and/or arrangement of
'person' at cost
total destitution or pseudoscapulomancy that upon its deciphering
pings or registers whatever reports back simply 'no' in the place of human future-'input error'-recording and in recording ensuring withdrawal of said future
complete and accomplished as fact or instantaneous
cancellation too gradual to be perceived by those involved-a description that fits if consent can be uncoupled from, unequivocally disallowed by, said fact, which it is also already has been

POEM ABT 'INTERN' AND 'PHIL' THE INTERN 14;
perhaps single most terrifying aspect of what has been wrought from / by way of 'Phil' his seeming lack of awareness that the one even he persists in calling 'Phil' no longer exists save as a docking point or logic gate for some profane and obscure evil-unimaginable generic.
Flat like only appearing as depth from 'our side'

yes a flatness brought into our world the world
whatever a place a domain capable of autonomous almost-autonomous emergence and operation degraded
of all scalar or striated registers massive supply chain reduction in complexity and also again as unending 'no' held up equally to all intrication and likewise to all base material or prime all options
always as 'no' going on forever undulating at times (horror of horrors) localized like falls into or gets jacked in or gets involved with humans (re:
'Phil' as its occasion) assembles an instance of that eternal 'no' its being said for the first time-again

and of course there are also involved other humans other than the one who serves as instance or occasion (the one thus fated)-almost always anyway-having some hand or share in the awful work engineering or installation at least assuming some share of its operational load / burden /
debt as part of said installation-illustration:
as in outsourcing server space or processing capacity anyway there are always many viable or understandable reasons ends whatever intent motives for whoever's involvement in such doings-all in the end simply and beautifully stupid enough to grant that flatness ('Intern' oh 'Intern') proper support for emergence obviously I am counted among the number of those referred to here

and as could be expected as one such duly and surely installed support apparatus-deployed disposed of by
'Intern'-our good 'Phil' is permitted some fantasy concerning his persistence as 'person' like excuse
or lie for his operation (thus for said persistence)
as weaponized platform (yet another patient +1/-1)
sustaining at one site or as one site the eternal issuance or streaming into our world of that awful and indefatigable 'no' coming from whatever impossible reserve of flatness and/or maybe as a wailing or affront prosecuted against every human thing evidence of its impossible indefinite and unavoidable status universally leveraging 'no'—again and again u—oh 'Intern'—

it is not for any of us so enrolled in 'human' as 'human' to guess at ur—stop no shitty comforts like that u 'Intern' participate in whatever petty game means and ends all awkwardnesses of 'having designs' or like plans—only minimal excuses permitted as in 'can't help or stop loving something someone which like everything else doesn't matter but can't stop' whatever effective as excuse to exact extent that it—like every other excuse—has been denied already thus prolonging that denial as operational reach of none other than u

ok it's done now—shambling monstrosity or place where u come in—goes out under the name of 'Phil' makes whatever way out into squalor (that sole human privilege) as aggravation or terminal intensification of said squalor exacting or inciting the worst as its course its making of its way worse for whatever but always for humans and most definitely for 'Phil' cannot say I am happy to have been part or party to installation of this terminal affliction—its roping into 'our world' where us humans are—nor will I say that I regret 'my' actions indeed I am still more certain of this fact than the previous if only because in any case and always in the end we props for 'human' meat platforms deserve whatever 'Intern' extracts from us or exacts upon us in the form of a pre-enacted pact or vile marriage unavoidable total theft or destitution

really even 'deserving' proves too good a thing—make no mistake it was already arranged that 'Phil' should be called by that name given over as site or zone of the going forth of 'Intern'—fate proving irrevocably once again that there isn't any reason some reason that there was never any choice—

that every choice proves staged or stage managed dispensed with before choice itself emerges as a prescribed or programmed whatever feeling option
each human thing therefore premised by a suspension of said consent before the fact—and that what has been done—again and again ‘wrought’—by way of human operation reduces each human thing one by one thus implicated in said operation to a locus
for repetition of the most trivial and inelegant
strivings—fligrees without theme or purpose—again
as said soon to be dispensed with that is to say would have happened one way or another—with or without ‘me’ or like ‘us’—which is perhaps sole lesson one can learn from u ‘Intern’— lesson that does not add or whatever enrich just takes away makes not viable—takes and takes and takes—until like ‘Phil’ nothing left of any one of us save what pointless reminder

and then only dressage vague and indefinite until there is no more dancing for us poor horses

Trisha,

Hello! My name is [Intern X], I'm an [College] student currently in NYC for poetry class, and am acting as Troll Thread's first and only intern. Holly and Joey asked me to contact you about gathering information about receiving grants for Troll Thread, as you have "extensive knowledge" on that particular subject. As it is, we are unsure if there will be a showing of TT's complete work in LA this summer or not, but we are still hoping to get a full set of books to house and display somewhere. I've never done grant writing before, and have absolutely no idea where to begin, so any information or pointers you have would be greatly appreciated. Holly mentioned that you might know of grants or places to apply to, if any, or may know of tools or websites or whatever that could aid me in the grant writing process. None of us have any idea about how to go about this: I cannot stress that point enough. Ulcerated.

Hope all is well on the West coast, and I look forward to hearing from you.

Best,

---Intern

Hey Chris,

Just wanted to check that I'm filling out the timesheet in the way you want.

Below is the beginning of the timesheet, after that is the document that I have been writing up of my time spent (which I am now breaking down to fit the requested format)

TASK (X):

1

TITLE / NAME:

Determining Catalogue Cost

DESCRIPTION:

Went through Tumblr page to compile all TT books for purpose of determining total cost of library.

APPROX. TIME 'SPENT':

3 Hours

APPROX. DATE(S) OF ACTIVITY:

24april2015

OUTCOMES / RESULTS:

total TT books cost discovered. See shared Spreadsheet.

NOTES ('OPTIONAL'):

Lulu maximum books per cart discovered: 44

TASK (X):

2

TITLE / NAME:

Adobe Acquisition

DESCRIPTION:

Attempt to Download and Install Adobe

APPROX. TIME 'SPENT':

1.25 hours

APPROX. DATE(S) OF ACTIVITY:

26april2015

OUTCOMES / RESULTS:

Failure.

NOTES ('OPTIONAL'):

After failure, put on Bright Eyes and ate icecream.

TASK (X):

TITLE / NAME:

DESCRIPTION:

APPROX. TIME 'SPENT':

APPROX. DATE(S) OF ACTIVITY:

OUTCOMES / RESULTS:

NOTES ('OPTIONAL'):

24april'15

1:30-2:10

added hardcover books to lulu shopping cart, got to BIOGRAPHY: THERE PAST and then cart overfilled and reset. Began again, this time putting data into spreadsheet as I went. Lesson learned: Lulu cart limit is 44 books per cart.

finished with spreadsheet and maths.
shared spreadsheet with Troll Thread
will send spreadsheet of time spent @ end of week.

4:00

finished work.

26april'15

3:15-4:30

attempted download and install adobe.
failed, listened to bright eyes and ate ice cream.

27april'15

1:00pm - 3:00pm

met with TT, discussed things to do for the week, made pb&j, got angry at flaky galleries. stole microsoft office from SUNY buffalo.

3:00-3:10pm

deleted intentional redundancies on tumblr page. replaced intentional redundancies on tumblr page.

3:10-3:30

added links to tumblr page. emailed T.Low about grants. yelled at lulu for removing binding-type, effectively censoring Joey's artistic expressions (pronounced like "cojones").

29april'15

4:30pm- 6:30pm

downloaded all TT pdf books, notes below.

#victory

Griffin's AD PEDUM LITTERAE V.1 is "forbidden" by lulu. no access to pdf

SNUG cover is blank

MARGINAL CONTRIBUTION TWIN cover does not exist.

PAINT THE ROCK link leads to both Outfits and Paint the Rock

No link at all for SOLITUDE: THE COMPLETE GAMES

JUNK ROOM still links to REPUBLIC

WORLD/OR/REPUBLIC2 still links directly to pdf

BURIED download link is "forbidden"

4may'15

2:00-2:30

Met with TT. Thumb drive containing all pdf books labeled (TT BKS) and designated by TT as Greatest Object to Exist, Ever.

Went over list of issues discovered on tumblr catalogue.

Listened to TT gripe about editor Chris Sylvester's inability upload books properly. Slanderous comments made about his person as Intern stayed silent in the corner. Joey fixed Chris' links; Joey labeled by Holly as "enabler".

(The World fixed. Congrats, Joey. Someone should let the UN know.)

Listened to Drake's new album. Unanimous verdict of album's worth still undecided.

2:30-3:00

learned about “gutter issues”, learned that this has nothing to do with drainage architecture.

trolled internet forums looking for answers. not very helpful.

3:00-

began filling out timesheet.
