Dear Dr. DETOGNI

Congratulations! Your profile has been created and is now available to our services.

Please keep a note of the following details:

- Your expert candidature number: EX2014D225960
- This web address for experts:
<http://ec.europa.eu/research/participants/portal/desktop/en/experts>
- To access, LOGIN (upper right of screen) with your ECAS account, click My Expert Area (upper left of screen), then click EDIT PROFILE (lower right of screen).
- Remember your contact email address for the European Commission services is this one which was used for the creation of your ECAS account!

What happens next?

Should the European Commission services identify your profile as a good match for specific expertise requirements, we will contact you.

Please keep your profile up-to-date by entering the Expert area in the Participant Portal using your ECAS log-in.

The user manual within the registration platform (‘user manual’ button on bottom left) guides you through each stage of the process. Otherwise, should you have any questions, please check the FAQ or contact our help-desk accessible from the Participant Portal.

Kind regards,
The Participant Portal Team
