Appendix Information on Safety and Use

1、 Important safety information

Warning: Failure to follow the following safety instructions could result in fire, electric shock, injury, damaged to Piu or other property. Please read carefully before using Piu.

(1) Handling

- ① Please handle Piu with care. It is made of metal, high-density plastic and medical grade silicone and has sensitive electronic components inside. Dismantling or tampering with it will void the warranty.
- ② Piu can be damaged if dropped, burned, punctured or crushed, or if it comes in contact with corrosive liquids. Do not use a damaged Piu as it may cause injury. Use water based lubricant only.
- ③ After cleaning Piu, keep it in the storage bag to protect it.

(2) Repairing

- ① Do not open Piu and do not try to repair Piu yourself as it may cause injury and will invalidate the warranty.
- ② Do not dismantle the base of the case as this will damage the unit, make it unsafe to use and invalidate the warranty.
- ③ Any repairing service performed by a non-authorized service provider will not be covered by the warranty. If Piu is damaged or malfunctions, please contact our customer service. You may visit us at www.IMTOY.com for more information.

(3) Battery

① Don't attempt to replace the Piu battery yourself as you may damage it, which could cause overheating and injury and will not be covered by the warranty.

② The lithium-ion battery in Piu should be replaced only by IMTOY or an authorised service provider and must be recycled or disposed of separately from household waste.

(4) Charging

① Please charge Piu with the original USB cable.

② Do not charge Piu near fire or water.

③ We suggest 6-8 hours for a complete charge. Overcharging the battery may cause overheating and a reduced capacity.

(5) Prolonged heat exposure

① Piu and its power adapter comply with applicable surface temperature standards and limits. But, even within these limits, sustained contact with warm surface for long periods of time may cause damage. Avoid situations where your skin is in contact with Piu or its power adapter when it's operating or plugged into a power source for long periods of time.

② It's important to keep Candy and its power cable in a well-ventilated area when in use or charging. Take special care if you have a physical condition that affects your ability to detect heat against the body.

(6) Note

① Please do not share your Piu with other people to against infection.

② Using Piu too frequently may adversely effect your health.

2、 Important Handling Information

(1) Hygiene

Please keep food and liquids away from the case to maintain hygiene.

If Piu is exposed to certain liquids, such as cosmetics, cleansers and inks, please clean it with water as soon as possible.

How to clean Piu:

- ① Take off the magnet power cable and turn off Piu (Press and hold the power button for 5 seconds.)
- ② Wash the inside with warm water and dry it with a soft flannelette or air dry.
- ③ Do not use detergents to clean Piu.

(2) Temperature

- ① Piu is designed to work in ambient temperatures between 32° and 104°F (0° and 40°C) and stored in temperatures between -4° and 113°F (-20° and 45° C. Piu can be damaged and the battery life shortened if stored or operated outside of these temperature ranges. Avoid exposing Piu to dramatic changes in temperature or humidity. When you are using Piu or charging the battery, it is normal for Piu to get warm.
- ② If the interior temperature of Piu exceeds normal operating temperatures (for example, in a hot car or in direct sunlight for extended periods of time), you may experience the following as it attempts to regulate its temperature:
 - Piu stops charging.
 - Battery temporarily stops working.
 - Piu will not turn on.

Important: You may not be able to use Piu if the interior temperature is too high. If Piu can't regulate its internal temperature, it will stop working. In this situation, move Piu to a cooler location out of direct sunlight and wait a few minutes before trying to use Piu. If Piu does not work again you may contact our customer service department.
