HIGH VACUUM STORAGE

Storing food in high vacuum prolongs food's shelf life in a natural way and preserves food's freshness. VACUUM PACKING MACHINES

VACUUM PACKING MACHINES ARE SUITABLE FOR STORING DRIED MEAT PRODUCTS, FRESH MEAT, FISH, FRESH OR BLANCHED VEGETABLES FOR THE WINTER, HARD CHEESES, PASTA, DRIED FRUITS, BREAD AND OTHER FOOD ITEMS.

Storing food in vacuum sealed bags prolongs food's shelf life and freshness in a natural way. Choose among five machine types with similar functions but different vacuum packing power and target user. Choose according to your wishes and needs!

FUNCTIONAL QUALITIES.

Automatic vacuum packing function (vacuum is created automatically and vacuum packing process is stopped when a pre-set negative pressure is reached).

Manual vacuum packing function for storing sensitive and moist food items (vacuum packing process can be stopped manually when estimated that enough air has been removed from the bag).

Packages with vacuum packing machines are well adapted to be sent by mail (crash tests were performed on all machine types).

FOOD QUALITY IS MAINTAINED.

Vacuum packed food can be frozen, stacked in the basement or on shelves.

Food with high moisture content does not dry out, crunchy food does not soak, and dry food (e.g. brown sugar) does not harden, because air cannot affect it.

ECONOMICAL USER.

Due to longer shelf life of food, we produce less waste from perishable foods and we do less shopping as we buy larger food packages that are less expensive.

Vacuum bags are made of PA/PE foil – impermeable material neutral in taste and smell. Bags can be reused.

VACUUM CONTAINERS, TIMER PRODUCT LINE

Storage in vacuum containers extends the freshness and shelf life of foods up to four times.

Containers made of transparent materials help you organize your refrigerator and shelves. Their use simplifies your kitchen life by maximizing valuable space (containers can be stored in piles, on top of each other).

These airtight containers will prevent any unpleasant odours in your refrigerator.

They are made of quality polycarbonate (a high impact resistance material) and therefore remain undamaged and closed on impact.

The lids are made of ABS plastic and valves of silicone. All materials are germ-free.

The use of vacuum pump is necessary to create vacuum pressure.

Vacuum storage is also possible with the help of Status vacuum packing machines.

The calendar on the lids allows you to mark food's shelf life or the date when the food was stored.

Optionally available: drip tray and divider insert for even better organization in your refrigerator and individual containers.

Containers are available separately or in sets with a manual vacuum pump, in different volumes and different shapes (rectangular, square or round).

Less CO₂ emissions

In Slovenia we throw away approximately 500 000 000 plastic bottles a year. 5000 trucks are needed to transport these empty non-recycled plastic containers, each carrying 100 000 plastic bottles.

Green Press bottle and can crusher enables us to crush all waste bottles. As a result, only 1000 trucks are needed to carry 500 000 plastic bottles.

How would the number of trucks and CO₂ emissions decrease for your country, which is much bigger than Slovenia?
