YOUR ADVERTISING STRATEGY

Below are some ideas of how you can build your Mo Brabus Team:

- Email
- Pinterest
- Facebook
- Twitter
- You Tube (Videos)
- Safelists
- Free Advertising Sites
- Word of Mouth
- Existing Programs
- Skype

Email

You can use the templates on the previous page to email prospects or existing contacts, (Remember to personalise them). Or you may wish to use your own original content. Remember to add any useful links to information that they would find useful.

Pinterest

Create your account using this: link <https://www.pinterest.com/> you can post adverts for free once you have an account.

Facebook

Lots of people use Facebook to advertise successfully. You can join Online/Network Marketing Groups and post ads or if you want to pay for advertising that is an option too. You can create an account using this link <https://www.facebook.com/>.

Below are some useful links:

This is a video teaching you how to connect with likeminded Entrepreneur's (made by Pearse a couple of years ago but still very effective)

This one is a very effective Solo Ad Site

Twitter

You can create an account here <https://twitter.com/?lang=en> and start posting for free.

You Tube

Create an account using this link:

<https://support.google.com/youtube/answer/161805?hl=en>

Videos are a very good way of presenting your opportunity to others. The following link <https://support.google.com/youtube#topic=4355266> will show you how to create videos and upload them.

Safelists

Once again Safelists are a very good way of presenting your opportunity in the form of credit-based advertising. The general rule is that you view other people's ads to earn credits and then use those credits to send your opportunity in the form of an email to other members on the database. Below is a link to a list of Safelists you may want to consider using.

Free Advertising Sites

Below is a link to a list of Free Advertising Sites you may want to consider using.

Solo Ads

Solo Ads are often linked with Safelists, but if you have a budget for advertising then this is very effective. On the next page there is a list of Solo Ad sellers you might want to consider. This is by far one of the better options if you want to build your team quickly.

Skype

When making contact with new referrals it is always a good idea to connect with them on Skype if possible, it is free and has the added advantage of screen share.

*NB. Mo Brabus takes no responsibility nor can they guarantee results from using any of these methods. These are suggestions – please conduct your own due diligence.
