STEPS FOR USING STATION ON YOUR LAP

	remove cable	leg position	connect USB cable
1 product set-up		2  the leg can be in the open or closed position during lap use	3  to Station	4  to laptop

 USB ports to laptop	While in your lap, the Station's integrated fan and hub will run off of the power from the laptop's USB port. This allows you to use the Station as a portable cooling pad while you are mobile (not at a desk). NOTE: High power USB devices, such as external hard drives, may not function correctly when using the Station in your lap. To correct this situation, the Station's power supply must be connected to both the Station and a power source.	2 using the hub
