Clippers & Trimmers

For over 38 years Laube have been manufacturing and assembling professional grooming products in the USA. Laube is an innovator of high-tech cord/cordless clippers, trimmers, accessories and grooming tools, who care about you as their customer.

Laube Flash Clippers

Laube Flash Clippers have 5 LED lights built into the nameplate which eliminate shadows on the coat and make it easier to see the hair in the pads of the feet, inside ears and under the belly area without straining your eyes.

Why Buy A Laube Clipper?

Laube clippers are sealed with no annoying vents that blow hair into your face or circulate dirt, hair and debris into the air you breathe.

The patented Laube lever stroke eliminates clipper blades jamming up with hair by taking a wider sweep in the stroke motion, which moves cut hair away from the blade teeth. Not only does this save you time, but your blades will stay sharper up to 10 times longer.

Laube clippers are lightest clippers in the world. Clipper weight is critically important for the health of your arms, shoulders, neck, wrists and hands. Repetitive Strain Injury and Carpel Tunnel are real injuries that affect professionals, so the lighter your clipper, the healthier you are.

Laube clippers give you real grip that is easy to hold on to with push points, grip points and help reduce Carpel Tunnel and Repetitive Strain Injury issues for professionals.

Laube Cordpacks

A clipper which features a Laube Cordpack allows you to easily switch to a battery giving you the choice of corded or cordless clipping. Clippers which do not support Laube Cordpacks cannot be used with batteries, and have their power cable fixed onto the clipper.

Customer Review

"Lovely lightweight entry level clipper which is quiet and easy to manoeuvre. It's not got the same power as the Mini Micro (nor the same price tag). As I regularly use an older Mini Micro, I find the cord on the iClip far superior (no transformer to mess around with - and the cord doesn't tangle as easily). We used this clipper on dogs and cats, and it was fantastic on the cats in particular due to the quiet motor.

The only drawback that I could find was that the switch was stiff to turn on/off. However, this might have been because it was new. Interestingly, I expected the hinge to be stiff as most of the new Laubes are, but that was not the case.

I gave this product 4 stars out of 5, simply because I'd want more power."

Customer Review

"I don't use this on EVERY dog, but I use it often enough that I wouldn't want to be without it! I found it particularly useful yesterday while shaving off a matted Ihasa who had a nice collection of fleas!

A word of warning though - you must use a longer blade than what you think. I have a powerful numatic vacuum system so I tend to go 2 blades higher. For example, to leave a 7F length, I use a 4F.

Another word of warning - trial and error must be used in order to get the hang of it. I found on loose skinned dogs (like a cocker) this left really horrible clipper marks. But things like poodles or shave off Ihasas in particular it worked really well!"

Hints & Tips

Blade Performance

It is essential to keep your blades well oiled while clipping. We recommend a "little and often" approach. Simply stop your clipper and apply a little oil to your blade every 10 to 15 minutes.

The screws on snap on blades are not tensioning screws. If your blade stops cutting, cleaning or sharpening will resolve the problem.

"Very good life from this battery before it needs a recharge."

by Partheeban Navaratnam

Laube Speed Feed Battery

The Laube Speed Feed Trimmer Battery is exclusively designed for this model of trimmer.

The battery's Nickel Metal Hydride system means the batteries do not have a 'memory' so never need to be fully discharged, and can also be left permanently charging so that they are ready for immediate use.

A fully-charged battery will last for about an hour of actual clip time, and can be re-charged in 20 minutes using a Fast charger, or 40 minutes using a Slow charger.

Hints & Tips

Battery "Memory" Effect

Nickel Metal Hydrate batteries are less prone to the "memory" effect found in other batteries. However after prolonged time without use or being fully charged/discharged, the "memory" effect can occur. This problem is easily solved by fully discharging, then charging your battery.

Simply leave your clipper or trimmer running (without a blade attached) until the battery is discharged, then fully charge the battery.

In some cases this process may need to be repeated several times.

Universal Dura-Lock System

Laube clippers use the Universal Dura-Lock system. This system is designed to lock all professional snap-on blades more securely than any other clipper.

First time Laube clipper buyers sometimes have difficulty attaching blades to their new clipper, so this tutorial will explain how to securely attach a blade to the Universal Dura-Lock system.

- 1 Move the hinge so it is in the upright position.
- 2 Place your blade onto hinge.
- 3 Turn the clipper on at a low speed setting. It is important to have your clipper running when attaching a blade, otherwise the lever could be damaged when trying to push the blade on.
- 4 Hold clipper firmly, and with both thumbs push down on the blade until you hear two clicks.
- 5 The first click you hear is the blade being locked onto the hinge and latch assembly.
- 6 The second click you hear is your blade being securely fixed into position.

MagnaCool Blade Block

The Technogroom MagnaCool blade block quickly dissipates the heat from clipper blades, by using the dissipation properties of ceramic to draw the heat out of the blade. It also allows you to work safer and faster than using cooling sprays. The MagnaCool blade block sticks to any magnetic friendly surface and uses its magnetic properties to hold the blade tight to the surface of the block (care should be taken when attaching a blade, as the magnetic pull is very powerful), stopping the blade being knocked to the floor.

"... I am really glad I changed to this. It is a great blaster with long hose, variable force of air, making it great for all types of coats and sizes of dog. It has a really clever clip change system to change the hose to a finishing dryer attachment, and it is equally great at finishing, a westie in about 15 mins. I use this on my own 2 standard poodles (1 with show coat) 2 toys (1 with show coat) and 1 mini in show coat.

I am really pleased with this dryer and when I need another dryer this will be my first choice."

"Good, sturdy table for the price I am impressed especially with the H frame, only thing is it is a bit low and not height adjustable so you need a stool if grooming for long periods."

by Louise Starkey

"I own a small long haired dog and was fed up getting a bad back trying to groom him on the kitchen worktop (also not very hygienic!). This table is very sturdy, well made and came ready assembled. The H frame and nooses are perfect for keeping my dog still as he is a right fidget. Have achieved excellent results in only a couple of days. Delivery was very quick, arrived within 2 days of ordering."

Blade Care

Poor blade maintenance can have devastating effects on your clipper. A tight blade is the main culprit, usually from lack of oil & lanolin from dog's coats forming a varnish, sticking the blade together. This can have a number of effects on various clippers, but ultimately leads to excessive wear on the drive system and may cause permanent damage.

Keeping blades clean & well oiled is key to keeping your equipment in top working order.

Regularly clean the hair out the blade with a small brush (such as our Mikki Teazle Cleaning Brush, which is available from our website for free), clean hair from the clipper head around & between the hinge.

Taking your time when going through matted or thick coat will reduce the strain on a clippers drive system.

By letting a blade go at its own pace, you will get there faster in the long run.

When oiling or washing blades while they are still on your clipper, care should be taken to ensure the oil or fluid does not run down inside your clipper.

This is one of the most common causes of clippers running hot or becoming noisy, and can lead to the motor needing to be replaced.

LIPS (Linked Interval Positioning System) takes dog grooming restraint systems to a whole new level. LIPS allows groomers to easily adjust where they attach grooming nooses etc. making it easy to adapt from large dogs to small ones. The beauty of this system is that it allows the work to be done quicker and safer for both the animal and the groomer.

This system offers multi-point control. The LIPS System is not so much about restraining dogs as it is on optimum positioning. The more an animal is restrained, the harder it will fight. That is why the LIPS system is designed to allow the pet to have a carefully limited range of motion, while making it feel that it still has control.

LIPS Starter Kit

The perfect system to get started. With multi-point fastening and adjustment, investing in a grooming control system will enable you to work more efficiently, whilst reducing stress or discomfort to the dog. Kit includes:

"I use this slicker all the time! Dogs seem to tolerate it really well as its not so harsh as other slickers out there. Sometimes if the dog has a really thick coat or its thick & a bit knotty then I may have to change over to a firmer slicker, but 98% of the time I use this slicker. You can definitely tell that the dogs don't like being brushed with the other slickers when I have to change over"

"I used this brush when bathing a horse for a show yesterday. Best invention ever! Really handy to have the shampoo inside the brush, saves a lot of messing around picking up bottles etc, especially if you have a horse who can be tricky to bath. I also can't believe it's so cheap, at this price no one should bath without one!"

Customer Review

"Takes a lot to impress me with horse lotions and potions as I normally think you can't beat good old showsheen. This is brilliant though. Totally different to showsheen as you can gloss over a dry coat and it gives instant shine. Used at a show today and it's great for a ringside touch up just before your class. Will be a staple of mine from now on."

Davis Oatmeal & Aloe Shampoo with 2% Colloidal Oatmeal is a hypo-allergenic formula which benefits sensitive, dry or irritated skin. Highly pulverized oatmeal granules adhere to the surface of the skin, anchoring moisturizers and making the skin softer and more elastic. Regarded for its superior moisturising and anti-itch properties, Colloidal Oatmeal aids in relieving conditions associated with allergies and seborrhea dermatitis. The addition of Aloe Vera helps soothe redness and reduce inflammation. What Shampoo?

How do you choose, why should you care, how can it affect your animals, or your business.

Even just within the range of shampoos that Technogroom stock it is important to ensure that you are buying and using the correct shampoo for the job.

For salons, you will be looking for a general purpose everyday shampoo, but it is also important to have some specialist ones on hand. Shampoos designed with quick drying, de-shedding or anti tangle properties can greatly reduce the time spend on some of the more troublesome coats.

The correct shampoo can also save you money. Although on the surface you may think one shampoo is better value than an other, concentration rates vary greatly between brands. Kelco shampoo is our most popular range, and with a dilution rate starting at 50:1 a little really goes a long way.

For show dogs you will be looking to help bring out the best in your dog. With that in mind it will be important to select a shampoo with that objective in mind.

Our K9 competition range offers the very best for show maintenance and preparation. This high class range has been recommended at the highest levels and has products to suit most coat types.

Our Shampoo Selector which is available in the Shampoos & Conditioners section of our website is a great way to search our entire range to find the perfect shampoo for your needs.

They are just that little bit different from the usual boring black elasticated pants, the stylish pink or grey piping all the way through the outside of the leg make these grooming pants something special and eye catching. Zoe Duffy also demonstrates the pet trim, one that is common place at any busy salon, a quicker, shorter version that looks as attractive as the 'show' offs!!

Zoe is an experienced lecturer and demonstrator and this shows in her expertise in this Master Class guiding you to the perfect Bichon Frise.

Two very different styling techniques, but one very similar outcome! Of course, every single hair on the Bichon Frise should be scissored to perfection -if you intend entering the show ring and that's exactly what Zoe demonstrates on the first of her two beautiful models.

Hints & Tips

PAL or NTSC?

Although all our DVD's are region free, there are still two different formats to consider;

- PAL - which is the standard used in Europe, Australia and much of Asia and Africa.
- NTSC - which is the standard used in North America and much of South America.

Although most modern DVD players support both standards, some may have difficulty displaying colour or playing the DVD at all. For this reason it is important when ordering a DVD to specify what standard you require. This will ensure you get the best viewing experience from our DVD's.
