Holidays

I have been thinking a lot lately about this holiday season, because it will be the last year that we are able to take my mom out to celebrate the holidays with us. She has become too difficult to move, and far too heavy now that she has a proper eating schedule. We put my mom into a home almost two years ago now, and getting her around into the houses and up the stairs is getting too physically demanding. My name is Jan. I am twenty-five years old, and my mom is the member of my family with MS. I guess my story starts with my mom, at my age when she was diagnosed with MS. She was the sixth of eight kids, born in Wakaw, Saskatchewan. She grew up in Saskatoon and graduated from Nutana Collegiate in Saskatoon in 1976. She was a member of her senior girls basketball team from grade nine to twelve, and was also an amazing artist. She could paint and draw almost anything. She loved art. When I was young, I learned that she loved to knit. She would knit my blankets and sweaters, even slippers. It is easy to say I love my mom, and I miss the things that she used to do. I was fortunate. She did get to drive me to the babysitters for a little while. I love my mom, and would love for her to still be able to come to her sister's for Christmas or Thanksgiving, but it is becoming so difficult. The care home needs to use a machine to transfer her from her bed to her chair and vice versa. It bums me out that I have to leave her behind.

The portal allow both private and public chat with friends and group mates. User need to click on the chat panel in the bottom of the screen and chat with friend by clicking on the name of friend as shown in the figure:

The main content area displays a grid of product cards, including 'Women Sandal', 'Classic Short', 'T-Shirt', 'Sandal', 'Hand Bag', 'Cord Bracelets', and 'Casual Genuine Suede Loafer'. A 'Search a Friend' sidebar is also visible on the right.

When a user select a particular product he/she would be redirected to the product description page where a user can select the desired product type , color etc. And add to cart.
