

USE OF BIO-BUTTEUR

✓ Proper use BIO-BUTTEUR :

This adaptation is exclusively for:

- form the soil of gardens and crops ;
- Used in accordance with the descriptions contained in this safety notice.

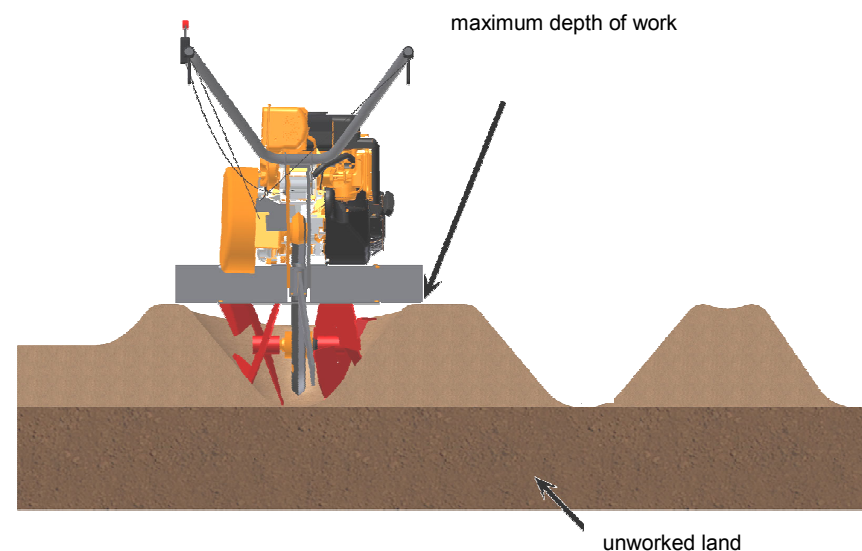

Any use of this framework is considered non-compliant. Improper use of the device or arbitrary changes made to this release the manufacturer from liability. The user is liable for damages caused to third parties and their property by the use of this device.

✓ To form mounds in your garden :

- 1) First, milling cutters with your garden home.
- 2) Mount the disk (Following the installation instructions).
- 3) Mount the engine on your tiller.
- 4) Wait until the discs are entered into the ground to the drive shaft. (Take the machine and check his advance)
- 5) Move slowly when hilling. (Work speed = speed milling)
- 6) Make a second pass with a higher forward speed to finish the mounds. (Not required)

✓ To weeding during the season :

- 1) Making a pass with a higher feed rate.

DAIRON IWS
DAIRON IWS Départementale 92
72230 MULSANNE
☎ 02 43 422 422 Fax. 02 43 422 000
Email : contacts@materiel-jardinage.com

PACKAGE

✓ In the package Bio-Butteur Ø260 :

- 1 disc left
- 1 disc right
- Fixing elements
- Assembly instructions

✓ In the package colis Bio-Butteur Ø330 :

- 1 disc left
- 1 disc right
- Spacer sleeve (Ø25, Ø28, Ø30)
- Fixing elements
- Assembly instructions

BIO-BUTTEUR discs have been designed and manufactured by the company DAIRON IWS. Thank you for purchasing a product DAIRON IWS.

READ AND SAVE THIS INSTRUCTION MANUAL

WARNING :

Do not try to use the disks BIO-Butteur before having read and understood all instructions, safety rules, etc., in this instruction manual. Failure of this information may result in an accident involving serious injury. Keep the instructions in order to maintain security and to investigate other potential users.

A). GENERAL SAFETY RULES:

- 1) The under 16 and those who have not read the user manual should not use the disks fitted to the tiller.
- 2) The operator is responsible to third parties in the area. Keep children and pets when the tiller is in use.
- 3) BIO-Butteur disks can be used to form the natural terrain. It is forbidden to use it for other reasons (for example, to cut branches or roots).
- 4) Work only with adequate visibility. Do not work in poor lighting.
- 5) Before and during operation of the machine, clear the ground of all foreign matter that may be thrown or block the next tool.
- 6) Wear long pants, shoes and gloves. Do not wear loose clothing, shorts, jewelry of any kind and not barefoot.
- 7) Tie up long hair to keep them above the shoulders, so they do not get caught in moving parts.
- 8) Do not use the disks in a state of fatigue, if one is ill or under the influence of alcohol, drugs or medication.

B). PREPARATION / OPERATION:

- 1) Before setting off, ensure that records are set correctly.
- 2) Stop the engine and disconnect spark plug before:
 - a. Work on the discs;
 - b. Perform maintenance or cleaning of the discs.
- 3) When using discs on the slopes, take special precautions:
 - a. Move transversely to the slope, never up or down;
 - b. Pay maximum attention when turned around;
 - c. Do not go excessively steep slopes.
- 4) Never use discs with protection of strawberries defective or if the safety devices are not installed correctly.
- 5) Use the engine of the tiller to its highest performance.
- 6) Once the engine is on the tiller, it is essential to prevent anyone from approaching with his hands or his feet hard.
- 7) Maintain a firm grip with both hands while working.
- 8) Always stop the engine and disconnect spark plug before attempting to remove objects taken from the records.

C). MAINTENANCE AND STORAGE:

- 1) Ensure that the pins are perfectly clipped to work safely. Replace damaged parts.
- 2) For reasons of safety, replace worn or damaged components.
- 3) Mount the disk by following the instructions.
- 4) To protect the hands during operations Removal / Installation disks, gloves especially designed for this purpose.
- 5) Always stop the engine and disconnect spark plug before any maintenance on the disks.

MOUNTING BIO-BUTTEUR

- 1) Stop the engine and disconnect the spark plug.
- 2) Remove the strawberries from behind the tiller.
- 3) For the model Ø 330, placing the spacer sleeve to adapt BIO-BUTTEUR.
- 4) Install the disc on the axes of the tiller
TAKE CARE OF UNDER MOUNTING DISCS
The hard right against the working direction is marked with small holes in the flanges
- 5) Use the pins to prevent uncoupling of the BIO-Butteur discs while working.
Check the proper locking pins.

