On your iOS or Android device, open the App Store℠ or the Google Play™ store, search for the free iFit Track app, and then install the app on your device. Make sure that the BLUETOOTH option is enabled on your device.

Then, open the iFit Track app and follow the instructions to set up an iFit account, customize settings for the tracker pod, enter and track information, and set goals. Make sure to customize the settings and check the calibration of the tracker pod.

To pair the tracker pod to the iFit Track app on your device, press both buttons on the tracker pod simultaneously for several seconds until the words SYNC ON appear in the display.

HOW TO CHARGE THE TRACKER POD

Battery Life. The tracker pod contains a rechargeable lithium battery. With normal use, a fully charged tracker pod will run for approximately 5 to 7 days before needing a charge. Check the battery level of the tracker pod by pressing the top button on the tracker pod repeatedly until the battery level display appears. When the battery level is at 10 percent and at 5 percent, the tracker pod will vibrate for 5 seconds to notify you that the battery needs to be charged. IMPORTANT: Make sure that the tracker pod syncs to the iFit Track app when the battery level is low; the data recorded on the tracker pod will be deleted when the battery level is at zero percent.

How to Charge the Tracker Pod. To charge the tracker pod, first attach the charger cable to the tracker pod. Note: You cannot attach the charger cable to the tracker pod while it is inserted in the band or in the clip.

Align the tab and the contacts on the charger cable with the slot and the contacts on the back of the tracker pod, and then fasten the strap on the charger cable around the tracker pod. Next, plug the charger cable into a USB port on your computer. It will take approximately 4 to 8 hours for the tracker pod to charge completely.

Note: To charge the tracker pod more quickly, plug the charger cable into a USB wall adapter (not included) or a USB car charger (not included).
