

DESIGNER LO RIDER VENT FREE FIREBOXES

Introducing the Designer Lo Rider Vent Free Fireboxes.

Introducing the industry's first Lo Rider Vent Free Designer Firebox. The low profile and standard herringbone style refractory brick make the Designer Vent Free Fireboxes from Monessen look just like a traditional hearth in your home. The circulating firebox and clean face design provide warmth and contemporary beauty to any space. Available in peninsula, see thru and left or right corner models, the new look of our Designer Vent Free Fireboxes offers a sophisticated new take on classic style.
