Touchscreen tips

If you press [ ], the screen will switch to the Interactive keypad.

The standby screen is also a great place to get accustomed to the touchscreen.

To select an item touch the icon on the touch screen accurately. Your KF750 will vibrate slightly when it recognises you've touched an option.

- There's no need to press too hard, the touchscreen is sensitive enough to pick up on a light yet firm touch.
- Use the tip of your finger to touch the option you require. Be careful not to touch any other keys around it.
- When the screen light is off, press the camera key on the right hand side of the phone to restore the standby screen.
- Don't cover the phone with a case or cover as the touchscreen will not work with any material covering it.

- When you enter an options menu, the touch screen will provide a four way arrow pad. Either touch the arrows to move through a menu one item at a time, or slide your finger across the touchscreen the direction you want to move.
- Don't cover the phone with a case or cover as the touchscreen will not work with any material covering them.

Exposure to radio frequency energy

Radio wave exposure and Specific Absorption Rate (SAR) information

This mobile phone model KF750 has been designed to comply with applicable safety requirements for exposure to radio waves. These requirements are based on scientific guidelines that include safety margins designed to assure the safety of all persons, regardless of age and health.

- The radio wave exposure guidelines employ a unit of measurement known as the Specific Absorption Rate, or SAR. Tests for SAR are conducted using standardised methods with the phone transmitting at its highest certified power level in all used frequency bands.

- While there may be differences between the SAR levels of various LG phone models, they are all designed to meet the relevant guidelines for exposure to radio waves.

- The SAR limit recommended by the International Commission on Non-Ionizing Radiation Protection (ICNIRP) is 2W/kg averaged over 10g of tissue.

- The highest SAR value for this model phone tested by DASY4 for use at the ear is 0.826 W/kg (10g).

- SAR data information for residents in countries/regions that have adopted the SAR limit recommended by the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers (IEEE), which is 0.631 W/kg averaged over 1g of tissue.
