Workplace Health and Safety

Any contractors working on-site will need to provide copies of both Workers Compensation and Public Liability certificates for all contractors. These need to be provided to the venue five (5) working days prior to the event.

All contractors, subcontractors and production companies must undergo a site induction process with the National Convention Centre prior to commencing any work.

All Event Organisers, their exhibitors, contractors, subcontractors and other associated staff are to comply with the Workplace, Health and Safety requirements of the National Convention Centre. This compliance includes familiarisation with the fire and evacuation procedures, which are established for the National Convention Centre. Anyone not adhering to these requirements may be asked to stop work and consultation may be required before further work can continue.

All contractors and sub contractors must review, comply and acknowledge our Workplace, Health and Safety policies and procedures before work can commence on site. All workers performing duties on-site are required to attend a short induction outlining the venue evacuation procedures and general Workplace, Health and Safety standards.

The following procedures and requirements are to be adhered to by all contractors working on the premises of the National Convention Centre, regardless of whether they are providing services directly to the National Convention Centre, or are working for an Event Organiser. Failure to comply will place the contract entered by the InterContinental Hotels Group trading as the National Convention Centre Canberra and the Event Organiser in jeopardy.

High visibility vests and enclosed shoes must be worn at all times during bump in/bump out and at any time whilst on the loading dock. High visibility vests must be brought on-site with the exhibitor or contractor.

All custom build booths must be pre approved by the National Convention Centre Canberra, a plan of the custom build booth must be provided no later than thirty (30) working days prior to the event.

Give-aways and prize draws at conferences, events, and exhibitions in the ACT

When an exhibitor gives away a prize at the stand, this is classified as a lottery. When a conference or meeting gives a prize to someone attending, this is classified as a lottery. When a seminar or function gives away a lucky door prize this is classified as a lottery.

The guidelines specify that whenever there is an element of chance, or a combination of skill and chance, the draw is classified as a lottery and a permit must be obtained, even if the prize has a very low (or nil) value. Usually any kind of draw (names out of a hat; business cards out of a bowl, lucky door prize, etc) requires a permit.

An information sheet and application are available on the ACT Gambling and Racing Commission website. There is a fee for the permit (currently approximately $64 for prizes up to $1,000; and approximately $123 for prizes of $1,001- $2,500). A minimum of seven working days is required to get a permit. If you are caught conducting a lottery without a permit, a fine may apply.

The fine applies to the person/organisation conducting the lottery and may apply to the Centre.

A permit is NOT required:

- If everyone who enters wins or is given the same prize (eg : door gift/ corporate gift)
- If there is any element of skill attached to the awarding of the prize, even token skill such as a guessing game, colouring-in competition, ring-toss, answer a question, etc.
- If no one from the ACT is eligible to enter and the lottery was not publicised in the ACT (these rules are there to protect ACT residents)
- If the prize is a rebate or discount on fees paid, or conference costs

In all other cases, a permit is required.

For more information and application forms, go to the Commission's website: www.gamblingandracing.act.gov.au and click on the lotteries section.
