Hosting and Managing a Meeting

As host, your responsibilities include overall management of the meeting. The Meeting window provides a forum for you to manage all aspects of the meeting and enable participants to chat, send video, share information and interact with each other via documents, presentations, whiteboards, applications, and more.

Some of the most common tasks that you can perform as host are described below:

- Edit your welcome message (on page 16)
- Record the meeting (on page 3)
- Invite more people (on page 4)
- Remind invitees to join (on page 10)
- Change presenters (on page 10)
- Make someone else the host (on page 13)
- Send a transcript (on page 18)
- End the meeting (on page 19).

A host can often be a presenter. For instructions on presenting information, see Sharing Files and Whiteboards (on page 199) and Sharing Software (on page 225).

Note: For a more in-depth understanding of how to navigate the meeting window, go to A quick tour of the meeting window (on page 20)

Interacting with other participants

After you start or join a meeting, the meeting window opens and on the right side, you can see all participants who are in the meeting. As other people join, you will see their names appear in the list.

You can interact with other participants in the meeting in different ways, depending on your role:

Role	Task description:
host Windows	 <ol style="list-style-type: none">1) View who's in the meeting2) Use video to see others and have them see you (on page 169)3) Make someone else the presenter (on page 11)4) Chat with a specific participant5) Invite someone else (on page 4) or remind an invitee (on page 10) to join the meeting.

Role	Task description:
participant Mac	 1) View who's in the meeting 2) Use video to see others and have them see you (on page 169) 3) Chat with a specific participant

Note: You can set preferences that assign specific sounds to participant actions, for example, when a participant joins or leaves a meeting. To change preferences:

- Windows: On the Edit menu, choose Preferences.
- Mac: On the Meeting Center menu, choose Preferences.

Recording your meeting

Recording a meeting is a great way to share meeting content with invitees who could not make the meeting or other interested people.

To record your meeting:

In your meeting window select Record located at the top right of the meeting window.

Recording begins immediately. At the end of your meeting the recording is saved to a file. For information on accessing and managing your meeting recordings, see Managing Meeting Recordings (on page 189).

Note: You can stop and restart recording during your meeting, but if you do so, you create multiple recording files. To avoid creating multiple files, simply pause and resume the recording as necessary.

Changing presenters

Depending on your site settings, a participant can become the presenter in a number of ways:

- As host, you can make a participant the presenter before sharing (on page 11) or during sharing (on page 12)

Making a participant the presenter when you are in the meeting window

During a meeting, you can make any meeting participant the presenter - also referred to as passing the ball. Any presenter can also pass the ball to make another meeting participant the presenter.

There are numerous ways to make someone the presenter depending on how you are viewing participants.

Here are a couple of quick ways to make another participant the presenter:

If you are viewing a list of participants, do either of the following:

- Drag the ball from the last presenter to the next presenter.
- Choose a name and select Make Presenter.

If you are viewing participant thumbnails, do either of the following:

- Mouse over a thumbnail and select Make Presenter.
- Choose a thumbnail, then select Make Presenter.

The participant becomes the presenter with all associated rights and privileges for sharing information.

Note: Use the docked tray at the top of your screen to change presenters when you are sharing.

Making a participant the presenter when you are sharing

When you are sharing your desktop, an application, or files in full screen mode, the docked tray at the top of your screen provides an easy way to change presenters.

To make someone else the presenter using the docked tray:

- Mouse over the bottom of the docked tray to expose it.
- Select Assign, then Make Presenter.

- Select a participant.

The participant becomes the presenter with all associated rights and privileges for sharing information.

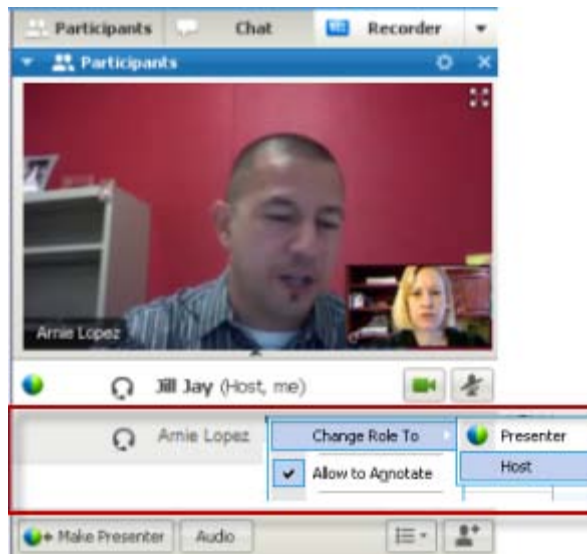

Note: You can make someone else the presenter from the participant list when you are in the meeting window.

Making someone else the host

As a meeting host, you can transfer the host role - and thus control of the meeting - to a participant at any time. This option can be useful if you need to leave a meeting for any reason.

To make another participant the host:

- 1 Do one of the following:

- Right-click on a participant name or thumbnail.
- Select the Participant menu

- 2 Select Host from the Change Role To menu. The selected participant is now the host.

The word (host) appears to the right of the attendee's name in the participant list.

Transferring the host role

As a meeting host, you can transfer the host role - and thus control of the meeting - to a participant at any time. This option can be useful if you need to leave a meeting for any reason.

To transfer the host role to a participant:

- 1 Optional. If you plan to reclaim the host role later, write down the host key that appears on the Info tab in the content viewer in the Meeting window.
- 2 In the participant list, select the name of the person to whom you want to transfer the host role.
- 3 On the Participant menu, choose Change Role To > Host.
A confirmation message appears, in which you can verify that you want to transfer control of the meeting to the participant whom you selected.
- 4 Click OK.

The word (host) appears to the right of the participant's name in the participant list.

Reclaiming the host role

To take over the role of meeting host:

If a participant has control of a meeting, you can assume control of the meeting by reclaiming the host role.

Important: If you leave a meeting—whether intentionally or inadvertently—and then log back in to your meeting service Web site, you automatically become the meeting host once you rejoin the meeting. You can rejoin a meeting using either the public meeting calendar or your private meeting calendar.

To reclaim the host role:

- 1 In the participant list, select your own name.
- 2 On the Participant menu, choose Reclaim Host Role.
The Reclaim Host Role dialog box appears.
- 3 Type the host key in the Host key box.

A message or greeting can contain a maximum of 255 characters.

- 4 Click OK.

Note: Participants can view the message or greeting at any time by choosing Welcome Message on the Meeting menu.

Restricting access to a meeting

Once a host starts a meeting, the host can restrict access to it at any time. This option prevents anyone from joining the meeting, including participants who have been invited to the meeting but have not yet joined it.

To restrict access to a meeting:

- 1 In the Meeting window, on the Meeting menu, choose Restrict Access.
Participants can no longer join the meeting.
- 2 Optional. To restore access to the meeting, on the Meeting menu, choose Restore Access.

To remove a participant from a meeting:

- 1 In the Meeting window, open the Participants panel.
- 2 Select the name of the participant whom you want to remove from the meeting.
- 3 On the Participant menu, choose Expel.
A confirmation message appears, in which you can verify that you want to remove the participant from the meeting.

Sending a meeting transcript to participants

You can send a transcript of a meeting to all participants at any time during the meeting. The transcript is an email message that contains the following general information:

- Meeting topic
- Meeting number
- Meeting starting and ending times
- URL for the Meeting Information page for the meeting on your meeting service Web site
- List of participants who have joined the meeting (audio-only participants are not listed)
- Meeting agenda
- Any public notes that you took during the meeting

You can optionally attach any of the following files to the transcript, if you saved them during the meeting:

- 2 If the Send Transcript dialog box appears, select the check box for each file that you want to attach to the transcript, and then click OK.
The transcript email message opens.
- 3 Review the email message and make any changes that you want.
- 4 Send the email message.

Note: The transcript is sent to all participants who provided their email addresses when joining the meeting, whether or not they are still attending the meeting when you send the transcript. Audio-only participants will not be listed on the transcript.

For security purposes, a participant who receives a transcript email message cannot see the email addresses for the other participants.

The transcript contains notes only if you are the meeting host, the public note taker, or the closed captionist, and you have saved the notes to a file. If all participants can take private notes, the transcript email message does not include your private notes, and the option to attach your notes in a file is not available.

If you saved notes or closed captions to a file, the transcript email message and the attached notes file contain the latest version of notes that you saved.

If you are the meeting host and end the meeting-and you have not sent a transcript-a message appears, asking you if you want to send a transcript.

Ending a meeting

Once you end a meeting, the meeting window closes for all participants. If the meeting includes WebEx audio, or an integrated voice conference, the audio also ends.

To end a meeting:

- 1 In the Meeting window, on the File menu, choose End Meeting.
A confirmation message appears, in which you can verify that you want to end the meeting.

- 2 Optional. If there is any meeting information that you have not yet saved, you can save it now - including shared files, chat messages, poll questionnaires, poll results, or notes.

Choosing the scheduler that works for you

Meeting Center provides several ways to set up meetings. Review the details about the different means of scheduling a meeting and then pick the one that meets your needs.

Short on time?

Use the one-page Quick Scheduler. Simply enter a few details and you are ready to host your meeting. For details, see Using the Quick Scheduler (on page 79).

Looking for more meeting options, such as adding additional security?

Use the Advanced Scheduler. Enter the level of detail you need. You can schedule or start the meeting from any page in the wizard. For details, see Using the Advanced Scheduler.

Want to reuse the information you saved in the scheduler?

You do not have to type in the same information every time you set up a meeting. If the meeting recurs on a regular basis, with the same attendees, you can set up a whole series of meetings. If the meeting details (such as attendees, meeting options) are constant, you can save those details in a template, which you can apply to any meeting you schedule. For details, see:

- Setting up a recurring meeting (on page 125)
- Using meeting templates (on page 121)

Note: If you decide to switch from the Advanced Scheduler to the Quick Scheduler (or from the Quick Scheduler to the Advanced Scheduler) any information you have typed is saved and available in the other scheduler.

About the Quick Scheduler

Use this one-page scheduler to set up a meeting with just a few mouse clicks.

Your site administrator decides whether your site displays the Quick Scheduler or the Advanced Scheduler, a wizard that helps you step through the process of selecting meeting options.

If your site displays the Advanced Scheduler automatically, you can easily switch to the Quick Scheduler. Simply click the Return to Quick Scheduler link at the top of the Required Information page.

Using the Quick Scheduler

- 1 Log in to your Meeting Center Web site.
- 2 On the navigation bar, expand Host a meeting to view a list of links.
- 3 Click Schedule a meeting.

- 4 Check whether you are viewing the Advanced Scheduler. Click the Return to Quick Scheduler link to display the Quick Scheduler.

The Advanced Scheduler consists of several pages, with the links to them on the right side of the page. The Quick Scheduler is one page.

- 5 Enter the details about your meeting. For information about the fields on this page, see About the Quick Scheduler page (on page 70).
- 6 Start or schedule the meeting:
 - If the meeting's starting time is the current time, click Start to start the meeting.
 - If the meeting's starting time is after the current time, click Schedule.

The Meeting Scheduled page appears, confirming that the meeting is scheduled. You also receive a confirmation email message that includes information about the scheduled meeting.

About the Advanced Scheduler

When scheduling a meeting, use the Schedule a meeting wizard to set several options for your meeting. These options allow you to customize your meeting for your specific needs, such as additional security. Once you schedule a meeting, you can change its options at any time, or cancel the meeting.

If another user has granted scheduling permission to you in his or her user profile, you can schedule a meeting on behalf of that user. For details about granting scheduling permission to another user, see Allowing another user to schedule meetings for you (on page 126).

Note: If you use Microsoft Outlook 2000 or a later version, you can schedule, start, and join an online meeting using Outlook. For instructions on using Integration to Outlook, refer the Integration to Outlook User's Guide, which is available on your Meeting Center Web site.

Choosing a level of security for a scheduled meeting

When scheduling a meeting, you can provide security for the meeting using these means:

- Require a password: Attendees must provide the password you set before joining the meeting. For more information, see About the Required Information page.
- Decline to list this meeting on the meeting calendar: An unlisted meeting does not appear in the meeting calendar on the Browse Meetings page or on your Personal Meetings page. To join an unlisted meeting, attendees must provide a unique meeting number. For more information, see About the Required Information page.
- Exclude the meeting password from email invitations: If you invite attendees to a meeting, you can prevent the password from appearing in the email invitations that your Meeting Center Web site sends automatically to attendees. For details, see About the Required Information page.
- Require attendees to log in: You can require attendees to have a user account on your Meeting Center Web site to join the meeting. Thus, attendees must log in to your site before they can attend the meeting. For more information, see About the Invite Attendees page.
- Require attendees to register for the meeting: If you require each attendee to send a registration request to you before joining a meeting, you can accept or reject each registration request. For more information, see About the Registration page (on page 100).

Tip: Choose a level of security based on the meeting's purpose. For example, if you schedule a meeting to discuss your company picnic, you probably need to set only a password for the meeting. On the other hand, if you schedule a meeting in which you will discuss sensitive financial data, you may not want to list the meeting on the meeting calendar. You may also choose to restrict access to the meeting once all attendees have joined it.

Questions about required information for setting up a meeting

Why set up an unlisted meeting?

You can prevent a scheduled meeting from appearing on the meeting calendar and any other publicly accessible pages on your Meeting Center Web site, by setting up an unlisted meeting. If a meeting is unlisted, the meeting details, such as its host, topic, and starting time are not available on the calendar and other places. This additional security may help prevent unauthorized access to the meeting.

To join an unlisted meeting, a participant must provide a unique meeting number.

If you invite a participant to an unlisted meeting, the participant receives an invitation email message that includes complete instructions for joining the meeting-including the meeting number-and a URL that links directly to a Web page on which the participant can join the meeting.

What are tracking codes?

Your site administrator can include tracking codes in the Advanced Scheduler. Tracking codes may identify your department, project, or other information that your organization wants to associate with your meeting. Tracking codes can be optional or required, depending on how your site administrator sets them up.

Questions about setting the date and time for a meeting

Does the meeting end automatically at the time I set?

You can set the time a scheduled meeting starts and the meeting's estimated duration. This information allows attendees to reserve the appropriate length of time in their schedules. The meeting does not end automatically after the duration you set.

What happens if I allow participants to join the meeting before the start time?

Participants can see the agenda and other details about the meeting. You can also set up a presentation to inform or entertain the participants while they wait for the meeting to start. You set up this option on the Agenda & Welcome page.

The option to let participants join the meeting before the host is available only if the administrator for your meeting service has turned the option on for your site and you schedule the meeting for a time in the future.

How can I learn about the fields on the Date & Time page?

Click the Help link in the top right corner of the Date & Time page, or review About the Date & Time page (on page 87).

Questions about setting up an audio conference

What kinds of audio conferences are available?

To provide audio during a meeting, you can use one of the following voice conferencing services:

- Integrated call-in teleconference-A teleconference that a participant can join by calling a phone number. The number to call automatically appears in a message box when a participant joins a meeting. If your meeting service provides toll-free call-in teleconferencing, both a toll-free number and a toll number are available. The global call-in option provides a list of numbers-such as toll-free or local numbers-that attendees in other countries can call to join the teleconference.
- Integrated call-back teleconference-A teleconference that a participant can join by providing his or her phone number when joining a meeting. The participant enters his or her number in a dialog box that appears when he or she joins the meeting. The teleconferencing service calls the participant at the number he or she provided.
- If your site includes the international call-back option, participants in other countries can receive a call back. For more information about this option, ask your meeting service site administrator.
- Third-party or internal teleconference-Any teleconferencing service other than the integrated teleconferencing service. You can use any third-party teleconferencing service or internal teleconferencing system, and provide instructions for joining teleconference when setting up a meeting. Your instructions automatically appear in a message box when a participant joins the meeting.

What are the system requirements for VoIP?

To use VoIP, ensure that your computer meets the following system requirements:

- A supported sound card

For a current list of supported sound cards, refer to the Frequently Asked Questions page on your Meeting Center Web site. You can access this page from your site's Support page.

- Speakers or headphones
- Microphone, if you want to speak during the conference

Tip: For better audio quality and greater convenience, use a computer headset with a high-quality microphone.

When should I include VoIP?

- Your meeting includes remote attendees who do not want to be charged for long-distance phone calls.
- Your meeting will not involve much interaction—for example, attendees will listen to a presentation instead of engage in a discussion.
- You want to minimize the voice conferencing costs for the meeting.

Check that your computer has the minimum system requirements for VoIP. For details, see About the Audio Conference Settings page (on page 91).

What is a dual-mode voice conference and when should I use it?

You can set up a dual-mode voice conference for a scheduled or instant meeting—that is, a voice conference that includes both a teleconference and VoIP. In a dual-mode voice conference, participants can use either type of service.

In a dual-mode voice conference, a participant can listen to audio using either a phone or speakers attached to his or her computer. To speak, a participant can use either a phone or microphone attached to his or her computer.

Note:

- Participants in a teleconference can speak to and hear only other participants in the teleconference. Similarly, participants using VoIP can speak to and hear only other participants using VoIP. Thus, the dual-mode conference option is usually appropriate for a meeting in which participants will listen to a presentation only and not interact in the voice conference.
- All participants can listen to a presentation if the presenter speaks into both a phone and a microphone.

Questions about inviting attendees

What is an alternate host?

When inviting attendees to a scheduled meeting, you can designate one or more attendees as alternate hosts for the meeting. An alternate host can start the meeting and act as the host. Thus, an alternate host must have a user account on your Meeting Center Web site.

Once you invite an attendee to a meeting as an alternate host, the attendee receives an invitation email message that provides information about acting as the alternate host. Your scheduled meeting appears on the alternate host's My WebEx Meetings page.

Can I invite people using my online address book?

You do not have to type the email address of each person you want to invite to your meeting. You can select attendees and sales team members (for Sales Center meetings) from your address book.

You can access your address book from the Invite Attendees page (for Meeting Center meetings) or the Invite Participants page (for WebEx Sales Center meetings) in the Advanced Scheduler.

Which information is included in the email invitation to my meeting?

Each attendee that you invited receives an invitation email message, which includes:

- A link that the attendee can click to join the meeting or obtain more information about it
- The meeting password, if you specified one
- Teleconferencing information, if your meeting includes an integrated teleconference
- The meeting number, which the attendee must provide if your meeting is unlisted

After you start a scheduled meeting, you can invite additional attendees. For details, see Inviting attendees to a meeting in progress.

Why should I request that attendees check their systems for UCF compatibility?

When scheduling a meeting, you can add a request to invitation email messages for attendees to verify that the following components are installed on their computers for playing Universal Communications Format (UCF) media files:

- Flash Player, for playing a Flash movie or interactive Flash files
- Windows Media Player for playing audio or video files

This option is useful if you or another presenter plans to share a UCF multimedia presentation or standalone UCF media files during the meeting.

Your request automatically appears in any invitation email messages that you send to attendees using the Advanced Scheduler invitation options. Your request also includes a link that attendees can click to access the Verify Rich Media Players page on your Meeting Center Web site. This page allows attendees to automatically verify that the required players are installed on their computers.

Note: If you intend to allow attendees to share to share UCF multimedia presentations or standalone UCF media files, ensure that the Enable UCF rich media for attendees check box is selected on the Meeting Options page in the Advanced Scheduler.

How can I learn about the fields on the Invite Attendees page?

Click the Help link in the top right corner of the Invite Attendees page, or review About the Invite Attendees page.

Can I use my online address book to invite attendees?

You do not have to type the email address of each person you want to invite to your meeting. You can select attendees from your address book.

You can access your address book from the Invite Attendees page in the Advanced Scheduler.

How can I enhance meeting security?

When scheduling a meeting, you can require all attendees to have a user account on your site. If you include this requirement (an option on the Invite Attendees page), attendees must log in to your Meeting Center Web site to attend the meeting, which enhances meeting security.

Each invited attendee automatically receives an invitation email message. To help increase the security for your meeting, you can prevent the meeting password from appearing in these invitations by selecting the Exclude password from email invitation option on the Invite Attendees page. If you exclude the password in email invitations, however, you must provide the password to attendees using another method-for example, by phone.

Questions about registration

What are the benefits of requiring attendees to register for a meeting?

You can require meeting attendees to register for a meeting before they can join it. Requiring registration allows you to:

- View a list of attendees to determine whether they have registered for the meeting
- Obtain attendees' names, email addresses, and optionally additional personal information before they can join the meeting
- Accept or reject individual registration requests
- Increase the security of your meeting

If you invite an attendee to a meeting that requires registration, the attendee receives an invitation email message that includes information about the meeting and a link that the attendee can click to register for the meeting.

Important: If you accept registration requests automatically for a meeting that requires a password—and an attendee registers after the meeting has already started—the attendee can join the meeting immediately, without providing the password. Therefore, to secure a meeting from unauthorized access, you must clear the Automatically accept all registration requests check box, and manually accept or reject all registration requests.

If you do not accept registration requests automatically for a meeting that requires a password—and an attendee registers after the meeting has already started—the attendee cannot join the meeting until he or she receives a registration confirmation email message and can provide the meeting password. During the meeting, you can check for registration requests in your email program and accept them to allow attendees to join the meeting.

How do I accept or reject registration requests?

If you scheduled a meeting for which attendees must register, you can accept or reject attendees' registration requests. If you accept a registration request, a registration confirmation email message which provides the meeting password, if any is sent the attendee. If you reject a registration request, a registration rejection email message is sent to the attendee.

Note: If you select the Automatically accept all registration requests check box on the Registration page, all registration requests are accepted automatically and a registration confirmation email message is sent to each attendee who registers.

To accept or reject registration requests:

- 1 Log in to your meeting service Web site. For details, see Logging In to Your Meeting Service Web Site.
- 2 On the navigation bar, click My WebEx.
The My Meetings page appears, showing a list of any meetings that you have scheduled.
- 3 In the list of meetings, click the meeting topic link for the meeting for which you want accept or reject registration requests.
The Meeting Information page appears.
- 4 Click Attendees.
The Registered Attendees page appears, showing a list of attendees who have registered for the meeting.
- 5 Select the check box for each attendee for whom you want to accept or reject a registration request.
 - To select all attendees currently appearing in the list, click Select All.

- To clear all selections in the current list, click Clear All.
- 6 Opt to approve or reject selected registration requests.
- Click Accept to approve the registration requests for all attendees that you selected
 - Click Reject to reject the registration requests for all attendees that you selected.

Tip: You can sort the registered attendees list by clicking the column headings.

You can also open the Registered Attendees page by selecting the meeting on the public Browse Meetings page. Then click Get Info> Attendees.

Questions about setting the agenda and welcome message

Can I change how the information on the Info tab displays?

You can choose a template for the Info tab, which appears in the content viewer during the meeting. The Info tab contains information about the meeting, including the meeting host, teleconference phone numbers, and host key (for the host only).

Note: You can choose another template only if one or more customized Info tab templates are available for your meeting service. Your site administrator can add templates for your service.

What is the Quick Start page?

The Quick Start page allows a presenter to quickly display a document, application or other item they want to share during a meeting. If the Quick Start option is selected by the host on the Meeting Agenda & Welcome page, Quick Start is available to participants throughout the meeting by clicking the Quick Start tab in the content viewer.

For more details about any of the actions available from Quick Start, click the Learn More link.

Can I change the meeting agenda or add one after I have set up my meeting

You can easily edit a scheduled meeting. You can edit it from the link in the confirmation email message you received or from your Meeting Center Web site. For detailed instructions, see Editing a scheduled meeting (on page 117).

Why share a document before the meeting starts?

When scheduling a meeting, you can select a presentation or document to share automatically in the content viewer once a participant joins the meeting. If the presentation or document contains multiple pages, you can also automatically advance its pages at a specified interval.

You can use this opportunity to share a presentation that informs or entertains participants while they wait for you to start the meeting.

The presentation or document that you select must:

- Be in the Universal Communications Format (UCF). For information about creating UCF files, review the Getting Started with WebEx Universal Communication Toolkit, available on your Meeting Center Web site; click Support > User Guides from the Welcome page.
- Reside in your personal folders in the My WebEx area on your Meeting Center Web site. You can select a UCF file that already resides in your folders, or upload a new file to your folders while scheduling a meeting.

Important: If you share a UCF multimedia presentation that includes rich media files—such as audio or video files—follow these guidelines:

- Ensure that each media file is embedded in the presentation file or resides on a publicly accessible Web server. If the presentation contains a link to a media file that resides on your computer, participants cannot view that media file. For more information about creating UCF multimedia presentations, refer to the guide Getting Started with WebEx Universal Communications Toolkit, which is available on your Meeting Center Web site.
- Select Allow participants to control file on the Agenda and Welcome page. If you do not select this option, the pages or slides in the document or presentation will advance automatically, which may prevent participants from viewing the media files.
- Ensure that each media file is set to play automatically for participants. For more information about setting this option for a UCF media file, refer to the guide Getting Started with WebEx Universal Communications Toolkit, which is available on your Meeting Center Web site.

Note: A presenter can change the default privileges for all attendees or individual attendees at any time during a meeting.

Questions about setting meeting options

What are some rules of thumb for sharing UCF media files?

When scheduling a meeting, you can allow attendees to share Universal Communications Format (UCF) media files during the meeting, either in a UCF multimedia presentation or as standalone UCF media files.

You can also prevent attendees from sharing UCF media files during a meeting. If you do so, only the meeting host can share UCF media files when also acting as the presenter.

You may want to prevent attendees from sharing UCF media files, for example, if you intend to allow attendees to share presentations or documents but want to prevent an attendee from inadvertently sharing a very large media file.

Note: The alerts options are applicable only if you select an integrated teleconference on the Teleconference page in the Advanced Scheduler. For more information about setting up an integrated teleconference, see About the Teleconference Settings page (on page 91).

Using meeting templates

If you meet with the same group of people and often schedule a meeting with the same tracking codes, audio settings and other meeting options, you can save these settings in a template. When you set up the first meeting, you can save your settings in a template. Later, when it is time to schedule another meeting, you can select that template from any page on the Quick Scheduler or Advanced Scheduler.

You have three ways to use an existing meeting template:

- Use the template, without saving any changes to it
You can use the template as is or make changes to the settings without saving these changes to the template itself. For details, see Using an existing meeting template for scheduling a meeting (on page 122).
- Make changes to the template settings and save the changes in the template
You can save these changes in the template, if you want to make permanent changes to the template. For details, see Using an existing meeting template and overwriting the template settings (on page 123).

- Make changes to the template settings and save them in a new template

You can make changes to the template as you schedule your meeting. Then save your changes in the template, if you want to make a permanent change to the template.

For details, see Using an existing meeting template and saving the changes in a new template (on page 124).

About Personal Conference and MeetingPlace Personal Conference meetings

A Personal Conference meeting includes an audio portion and an online portion. You start the audio portion first, and as soon as it starts, the online portion is automatically created on your WebEx service site. If you are in the audio portion of the meeting and need to share a presentation, document, or application with meeting participants, you can start the online portion of the Personal Conference meeting and the participants can join it while still participating in the audio portion of the Personal Conference meeting. Personal Conference meetings are only available if your site supports Personal Conferencing.

A MeetingPlace Personal Conference meeting uses your Cisco Unified MeetingPlace audio conferencing account for the audio conference, and does not have an online portion for the meeting. MeetingPlace Personal Conference meetings are only available if your site supports Cisco Unified MeetingPlace audio conferencing and MeetingPlace Personal Conferencing.

Using WebEx Audio

WebEx Audio lets you use either your telephone or your computer to hear others and to speak in your meeting:

Note: If you are a host, you can invite up to 500 people to participate in the audio conference.

After joining the conference, participants can switch between audio modes with little or no listening interruption. In a mixed-mode conference, where some participants are using the telephone and others are using the computer, up to 125 people can speak.

Using caller authentication to start or join an audio conference

Host accounts only

CLI (caller line identification), or ANI (automatic number identification), is a form of caller ID, a telephony intelligent service that transmits a caller's telephone number before the call is answered. Any dial-in caller with a host site account can be authenticated and placed into the correct audio conference without needing to enter a meeting number.

If you have a host account, and your site is enabled for ANI/CLI, you can

- schedule a meeting with dial-in ANI/CLI teleconferencing authentication.
- be authenticated whenever you dial into any ANI/CLI enabled audio conference to which you have been invited by email. Call-in authentication is established by mapping your email address to a phone number in your user profile.
- specify a call-in authentication PIN to prevent "spoofers" from using your number to dial into an audio conference

To schedule an audio conference with ANI/CLI authentication:

- 1 Log in to your Meeting Center Web site.
- 2 On the navigation bar, under Host a Meeting, click Schedule a Meeting.
The Schedule a Meeting page appears.

- 3 Click Change audio options.

The Audio Options dialog box appears.

- 4 Select the Enable audio conference CLI authentication when participants call in checkbox if it is not already selected.

Note: Caller authentication will only be available to participants if they are invited to a CLI/ANI enabled audio conference by email during the meeting scheduling process. Any participant invited to the audio conference once it has begun cannot use caller authentication.

Specifying call-in authentication for your host account

If you have a host account, and your site is enabled for call-in authentication, you can set authentication for any phone number listed in your user profile. Your call will be authenticated by mapping your email address against specified phone numbers in your profile whenever you dial into a CLI (caller line identification), or ANI (automatic number identification) enabled audio conference to which you have been invited by email.

Note: Caller authentication will only be available if you have been invited to a CLI/ANI (automatic number identification) enabled audio conference by email during the meeting scheduling process. Caller authentication will not be available if you are dialing in to a CLI/ANI enabled audio conference:

- from an invitation other than email.
- from an email invitation originated during the meeting.

To specify call-in authentication for your host account:

- 1 Log in to your Meeting Center Web site.
- 2 On the navigation bar, click My WebEx.
- 3 Click My Profile.

The My WebEx Profile page appears.

- 4 Under Personal Information, select the Call-in authentication checkbox beside any phone number for which you want dial-in authentication.
- 5 Click Update.

Using an authentication PIN

If you have a host account, and your site is enabled for CLI (caller line identification), or ANI (automatic number identification) audio conferences, you can use an authentication PIN to prevent "spoofers" from using your number to dial into an audio conference.

If your site administrator sets the authentication PIN as mandatory for all accounts using call-in authentication on your site, then you must specify a PIN number or caller authentication will be disabled for your account.

To specify an authentication PIN:

- 1 Log in to your Meeting Center Web site.
- 2 On the navigation bar, click My WebEx.
- 3 Click My Profile.
The My WebEx Profile page appears.
- 4 Under Personal Information, in the PIN: text box, enter a 4-digit PIN number of your choosing.
- 5 Click Update.

Editing or updating your stored phone numbers

You can edit or update the phone numbers listed in your profile if you have not yet joined the audio conference or if you joined the audio conference from your computer. In addition, you can view any phone number cookies stored on your computer.

Any updates you make do not take effect until the next time you join a meeting.

To edit or update your profile:

- 1 Do either of the following:
 - On the Audio menu, choose Join Audio Conference.
 - At the bottom of the Participants panel, click Audio.

The Audio Conference dialog box appears.

- 2 Select Manage phone numbers from the dropdown box in the lower pane. The Manage phone numbers dialog box appears.
- 3 Click Edit to update the phone numbers in your My WebEx profile, or Clear to delete phone numbers that are stored in cookies on your computer.

Note: You cannot be participating in an audio conference by phone if you want to edit or update your phone numbers.

Using Integrated Voice Conferences

An Integrated Voice Conference allows participants to speak to each other using voice over Internet Protocol (VoIP)-an Internet-based way of connecting through the computer. Integrated voice conferences are useful if:

- Participants are located a great distance away and do not want to incur long distance phone charges
- The meeting is a presentation rather than a discussion and does not involve interaction among participants

Your user role in an Integrated Voice conference determines your level of participation. Whichever role you take, the following table describes the basic tasks associated with that role. For detailed instructions on a particular task, click “More” by a task description.

	Task description:
Host  	Start and manage a voice conference: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ fine tune your microphone and speaker settings More (on page 166) ▪ Allow a participant to speak More (on page 163) ▪ mute or unmute participant microphones More (on page 154) To start a voice conference: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Select Voice Conference on the Quick Start page ▪ or, select Integrated Voice Conference > Start Conference from the Audio menu. To end a voice conference:

Note: For better audio quality and greater convenience, use a computer headset with a high-quality microphone, rather than speakers and a microphone.

Asking to speak

Participant only

During a voiceconference, you can indicate that you want to speak. If you do request to speak, you can cancel the request at any time. Speaking in an Integrated VoIP conference

To request to speak, or to cancel a request to speak:

On the Participants panel, click Raise Hand or Lower Hand, respectively.

- If you ask to speak, the raised-hand indicator appears on the Participant panel for the host and presenter.
- If you cancel a request to speak, the raised-hand indicator is removed from the Participant panel for the host and presenter.

Allowing a participant to speak

Host only

Once you start a voice conference, participants can join the conference and listen to the meeting audio. Up to seven participants can speak at a time.

You can specify which participants can speak, by passing the microphone.

To allow a participant to speak in a voice conference:

- 1 On the Participants panel, select the name of the participant whom you want to allow to speak.
- 2 At the bottom of the panel, select Pass Mic.

An indicator appears near the participant's name on the panel.

The participant can now speak until you either pass the microphone to another participant or mute the participant's microphone.

Note: A request to speak can be made at any time during a meeting, by clicking Raise Hand on the Participants panel.

Speaking in a voice conference

If you are a current speaker, the method by which you speak depends on the speaker setup option that is currently selected for your meeting:

- Desktop speakers (default): If this option is selected, the following appears in the bottom-right corner of your Meeting window:

Press the Ctrl key on your keyboard while speaking. Pressing this key mutes your speakers, thereby preventing your voice from echoing in the conference.

- Headset: If this option is selected, the following appears in the bottom-right corner of your Meeting window:

Simply speak into your microphone.

Tip: Before you join a voice conference, you can use the audio setup wizard to select you audio device and adjust its settings. More (on page 166)

Understanding the speaker queue for a voice conference

During an Integrated Voice conference, a participant can request to speak.

After a participant requests to speak, the participant's place in the speaker queue is indicated by a number to the right of the Integrated Voice indicator.

The speaker queue lets you keep track of the order in which participants have requested to speak. To let a participant speak, you can pass the microphone to the participant. More (on page 163)

Once you pass the microphone to a participant, the speaker queue renumbers the remaining participants. For example, speaker 2 in the queue becomes speaker 1.

Fine tuning your microphone and speaker settings

The first time you use an integrated voice conference, the audio wizard walks you through selecting your sound device, and setting your speaker volume and microphone level.

Any time before you start or join a meeting, you can manually open the wizard to test your device again, or make further adjustments, as necessary.

To open the wizard and adjust your sound settings:

- 1 From the meeting window menu, select Audio > Computer Setup for Audio.
- 2 Follow the wizard instructions.

Sending and Receiving Video

When you send video, your video is seen by all participants.

If a video camera is attached to your computer, you can broadcast live video. Other participants can see you, or whatever you focus your webcam on. To see video, participants do not need to have a webcam installed on their computers.

WebEx meetings support high-quality video, which can be set at the site or meeting level. Video can be as high as 360p resolution (640x360). However, the quality of the video that participants can send and receive depends on the following:

Video mode	What you need
Sending	▪ A webcam capable of producing high-quality video. WebEx supports most webcams of this type
	▪ A network connection fast enough to send and receive high-quality video
	▪ A computer powerful enough to support high-quality video
Receiving	▪ A network connection fast enough to receive high-quality video
	▪ A computer powerful enough to support high-quality video

If your site or meeting does not support high-quality video, then standard video is used.

To start or stop sending video, simply select the video icon beside your name.

After you select the icon, it changes to green to indicate that you are sending video.

After you start sending video, you can perform the following tasks depending on your role.

Using annotation tools on shared content

In an online meeting, you can use annotation tools on shared content to annotate, highlight, explain, or point to information:

Basic annotation tools

Annotation Tool	Icon	Description

To display the laser pointer, which lets you point out text and graphics on shared content using a red “laser beam,” click the downward-pointing arrow. Clicking this button again turns off the pointer tool.
Text		Lets you type text on shared content. Participants can view the text once you finish typing it and click your mouse in the content viewer, outside the text box. To change the font, on the Edit menu, choose Font . Clicking this button again turns off the text tool.

Sharing files

File sharing is ideal for presenting information that you do not need to edit during the meeting, such as a video or slide presentation. Participants can

- view shared files in their content viewers without the need for the application with which it was created.
- view a media file, such as a video, without the need for special software or hardware.
- view any animation and transition effects on shared Microsoft PowerPoint slides.

After a meeting starts, you can open a presentation or document to share. You do not need to select it or “load” it before the meeting.

While sharing a file, you can:

- Draw on the screen More (on page 202)
- Use a pointer to emphasize text or graphics More (on page 202)
- Print it More (on page 218)
- Display it at various magnifications, in miniature (thumbnails), and in a full-screen view More (on page 201)
- Synchronize all participants' displays with the display in your content viewer More (on page 214)
- Save it to a file More (on page 216)

At any time during a meeting, you can grant participants privileges that allow them to annotate, save, print, and display different views of shared content.

Sharing a file

You can share a file, such as a document, presentation, or video, that resides on your computer. Participants view the shared file in their content viewers.

To share a file:

- 1 On the Share menu, choose File.
The Share File dialog box appears.
- 2 Select the document or presentation that you want to share.
- 3 Click Open.

The shared document or presentation appears in the content viewer.

Choosing an import mode for presentation sharing

For Windows users only

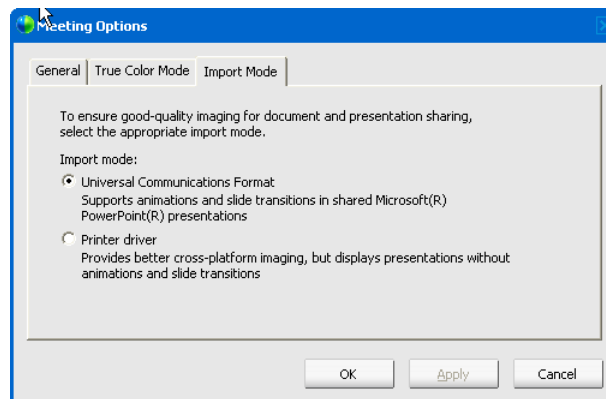

Before you share a presentation, you can choose one of the following import modes:

- Universal Communications Format (UCF)-The default mode. Lets you display animations and slide transitions in Microsoft PowerPoint presentations. In the UCF mode, Meeting Manager imports presentations more quickly than it does in the printer driver mode. However, pages or slides may not appear consistently in Meeting Manager across platforms.
- Printer driver-Displays shared presentations as they appear when you print them, providing a consistent appearance of pages and slides in Meeting Manager across platforms. However, this mode does not support animations or slide transitions. In this mode, the first page or slide may appear quickly, but the total import time for all pages or slides is usually longer than it is in the UCF mode.

Note: Changing the import mode does not affect any presentations that you are currently sharing. To apply a new import mode to a shared presentation, you must close it first, and then share it again.

To choose an import mode for shared presentations:

- 1 In the Meeting window, on the Meeting menu, choose Options.
The Meeting Options dialog box appears, with the Options tab selected by default.
- 2 Click the Import Mode tab.

The Import Mode tab options appear.

- 3 Select either Universal Communications Format or Printer driver.

When sharing a Microsoft PowerPoint slide presentation in the content viewer, you can animate text and slide transitions, just as you can when using the Slide Show option in PowerPoint.

Note: To show slide animations and transitions, you must share the presentation as a Universal Communications Format (UCF) file (.ucf). The UCF import mode automatically converts a PowerPoint file (.ppt) to a UCF file when you share it. More (on page 204)

- For best results when sharing a presentation created using Microsoft PowerPoint 2002 for Windows XP, use a computer with an Intel Celeron or Pentium 500 MHz or faster processor.
- If at least one meeting participant is using the Java Meeting Manager, animations and slide transitions will not display during the meeting. The meeting host can prevent participants from joining a meeting using the Java Meeting Manager when scheduling the meeting.

To show slide animations and transitions in a shared presentation:

- 1 Ensure that the content viewer has input focus by clicking in the viewer.
The content viewer has input focus if a blue border appears around the outside of the slide in the viewer.
- 2 On the toolbar, select the appropriate arrows to move through your presentation.

Saving a presentation, document, or whiteboard

You can save any shared document, presentation, or whiteboard that appears in the content viewer. A saved file contains all the pages or slides in the document, presentation, or whiteboard that is currently displayed in the content viewer, including any annotations and pointers that you or other attendees added to them.

Files that you save are in the Universal Communications Format (UCF), which have a .ucf extension. You can open a .ucf file either in another meeting or at any time outside of a meeting.

Sharing Web Content

share Web content with meeting participants	Sharing Web content (on page 222)
understand the differences between sharing a browser and sharing Web content	Differences between sharing Web content and sharing a Web browser (on page 222)

About sharing Web content

You can share Web content that resides on:

- The public Internet or Web
- Your company's intranet
- Your computer or another computer on your private network

Web content includes:

- Web pages, including pages that contain embedded media files, such as Flash, audio, or video files
- Standalone media files, such as Flash, audio, or video files

The Web content that you share opens in the content viewer on each participant's screen. If you share a Web page, participants view and interact independently with the content on the page. If the page contains links to other pages, they can also navigate independently to those pages.

If you use Web content sharing, then, participants can experience audio and video effects on a Web page. However, unlike Web browser sharing, this option does not allow you to guide participants to other Web pages. For more information, see Differences between sharing Web content and sharing a Web browser (on page 222).

Important: If you share content that requires a media player, participants can view and interact with the content only if the appropriate player is installed on their computers.

Sharing Web content

You can share a Web page that contains multimedia effects. The page opens in the content viewer on each participant's screen.

To share Web content:

- 1 On the Share menu, choose Web Content.
The Share Web Content dialog box appears.
- 2 In the Address box, enter the address, or URL, at which the content resides.
Or, if you have previously shared the content, select it in the drop-down list.
- 3 In the Type box, select the type of Web content that you want to share.
- 4 Click OK.

Tip: You can copy a URL from any source, such as another browser window, and then paste it in the Address box.

Differences between sharing Web content and sharing a Web browser

Meeting Center provides two options for sharing Web-based information. You can share Web content or share a Web browser with meeting participants. Choose the feature that better suits your needs.

Sharing option	Advantages	Disadvantages
Web browser sharing	<ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Lets you guide participants to various Web pages and sites on the Web.▪ Lets you grant attendees control of your Web browser.▪ Lets you and other participants annotate Web pages.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Does not display media effects or transmit sounds on Web pages.▪ Does not let participants interact with Web pages independently.
Web content sharing	<ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Displays Web pages, and lets participants experience media effects on Web pages, including video and sound.▪ Lets participants interact with Web pages independently in their content viewers.	Does not let you guide participants to other Web pages.

Sharing Software

Sharing a tool, like a software application, works differently from sharing a document or presentation. When you share software during a meeting, a sharing window opens automatically on all participant screens. You can show, in this special sharing window:

- an application (for example, you want to edit a document as a group or show your team how a tool works)
- computer desktop (for easily sharing several applications at once and for sharing file directories open on your computer)
- web browser (useful for sharing particular Web pages with participants or showing a private intranet)
- any application or the desktop on a remote computer with Access Anywhere installed on it (for example, you are on the road, and the computer in your office has the information you need)

Your site settings and your user role in a meeting determines your level of participation in sharing software. Whichever role you take, this table describes the basic tasks associated with that role. For detailed instructions on a particular task, select "More" by the task description.

Role		Task description:
host and presenter		Share software: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Share applications More... (on page 226) Share your desktop More (on page 229) Share a Web browser More (on page 231) Share a remote computer More (on page 233) Control the appearance of shared software More (on page 242) Annotate shared software More (on page 250) Let a participant control your shared software More (on page 253)

Sharing applications

You can use application sharing to show all meeting participants one or more applications on your computer. Application sharing is useful for demonstrating software or editing documents during a meeting.

Participants can view the shared application, including all mouse movements without having to run the application that you are sharing on their computers.

Here are just a few tasks you can perform:

- Start sharing an application More (on page 227) and open more applications to share More (on page 228)
- Control the appearance and viewing of shared software (pausing, changing to full-screen view, and so on) More (on page 242)
- Annotate and draw on a shared application More (on page 250) and allow participants to draw More (on page 253)
- Learn about sharing application effectively More (on page 262)
- Stop sharing an application More (on page 229)

Starting application sharing

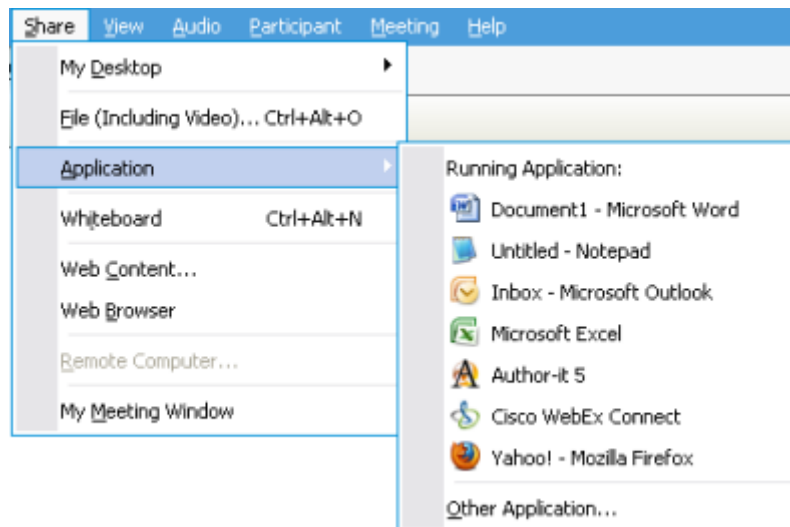

Host or Presenter only

You can share any application on your computer with meeting participants.

To share an application:

- 1 On the Share menu, choose Application.

- 2 Do one of the following:

- If the application you want to share is currently running, select it in the list to begin sharing it.
- If the application you want to share is not currently running, select Other Application. The Other Application dialog box appears, showing a list of all applications on your computer. Select the application, and then select Share.

Your application appears in a sharing window on participant screens.

For tips that can help you to share applications more effectively, see Tips for Sharing Software (on page 262).

Sharing several applications at once

To share an additional application:

Select the application you want to share:

Sharing a remote computer

A presenter uses remote computer sharing to show all meeting participants a remote computer. Depending on how the remote computer is set up, the presenter can show the entire desktop or just specific applications. Remote computer sharing is useful to show participants an application or file that is available only on a remote computer.

Participants can view the remote computer, including all the presenter's mouse movements, in a sharing window on their screens.

As presenter, you can share a remote computer during a meeting if:

- You have installed the Access Anywhere Agent on the remote computer
- You logged in to your Meeting Center Web site before joining the meeting, if you are not the original meeting host

For information about setting up a computer for remote access, refer to the Access Anywhere User's Guide.

Tasks related to sharing a remote computer:

- Start sharing a remote computer More (on page 233)
- Manage how and what participants view on the shared remote computer (pausing, changing to full-screen view, and so on) More (on page 242)

Depending on the authentication method you chose when you set up the computer for Access Anywhere, you perform one of these tasks:

- If you chose access code authentication: You enter the access code you typed when you set up the remote computer.
- If you chose phone authentication: You receive a phone call at the number that you entered when you set up the remote computer.

6 Complete your authentication.

- If you chose access code authentication: Type your access code in the box, and then select OK.
- If you chose phone authentication: Follow the voice instructions.

Note:

- If you are not the original meeting host, you must log in to your Meeting Center Web site before joining a meeting in which you want to share a remote computer. If you are already in a meeting, but did not log in to your site, you must leave the meeting, log in to your site, and then rejoin the meeting.
- If a password-protected screen saver is running on the remote computer, your meeting service automatically closes it once you provide your access code or pass code.

- If the remote computer is running Windows 2000, and you must log in to the computer, send a Ctrl+Alt+Del command to the computer.
- If you set up the remote computer so you can access multiple applications, you can share additional applications simultaneously.

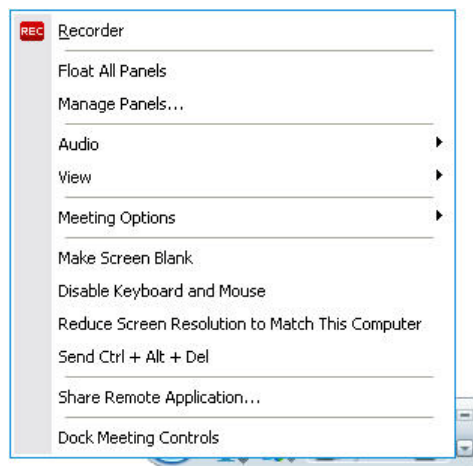

Sharing additional applications on a shared remote computer

Host or Presenter only

While sharing a remote computer on which you have specified that you can access only specific applications rather than its entire desktop, you can share additional applications on the remote computer. Meeting participants can view all shared applications simultaneously.

- 1 On the Meeting Controls Panel, select the down arrow button (it is the last button on the Meeting Controls Panel). Then choose Share Remote Application.

- 2 In the Select Application box, select the application you want to share.

After you choose another application to share, all previously selected applications remain open.

Example: You opened the Paint application first. Then you chose Notepad from the Select Application box. Both applications remain open on the shared desktop.

- 3 Select OK.

Stopping remote computer sharing

Host or Presenter only

You can stop sharing a remote computer during a meeting at any time. Once you stop sharing a remote computer, the Access Anywhere Server disconnects your local computer from the remote computer. The remote computer remains logged into the Access Anywhere Server, so you can access it again at any time.

Before you stop remote computer sharing:

To ensure your privacy and the security of your remote computer, do one of the following:

- Close any applications that you started during the sharing session.
- If the remote computer is running Windows 2000, and you have administrator rights on the computer, log off from or lock the computer. To access these options on the computer, send a Ctrl+Alt+Del key combination to the remote computer More... (on page 241)
- Specify a screen saver password, and set the screen saver to appear after short period of inactivity—for example, 1 minute.
- Shut down the computer, if you do not plan to access it again remotely.

To stop remote computer sharing:

On the Meeting Controls Panel, select Stop Sharing.

Sharing stops and you return to Meeting Manager.

Managing a shared remote computer

- Hide or display the contents on the remote computer's screen at the remote location More (on page 240)

Note: Any changes that you make to options affect the remote computer only during the current sharing session. The changes do not affect the default options that you set for the remote computer in the Access Anywhere Agent preferences.

Commands you can send:

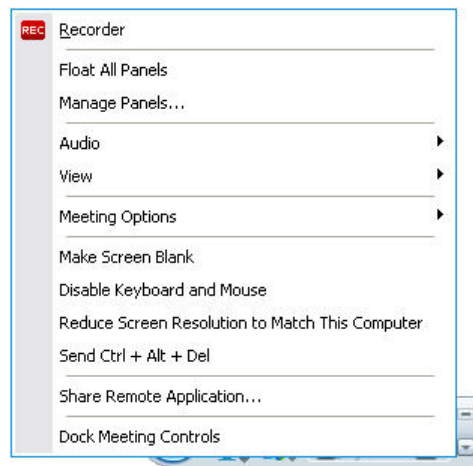

- Ctrl+Alt+Del key combination, which allows you to access options to log in to, log out from, lock, or unlock a Windows PC More (on page 241)
- A command to bring remote applications to the front of your screen, if they are either behind other applications or minimized More (on page 241)

Reducing the screen resolution for a shared remote computer

While sharing a remote computer, you can reduce the screen resolution on the remote computer. This option helps to prevent the need to scroll while viewing the desktop or applications on the remote computer. The reduced screen resolution also appears in all participant sharing windows. You can return a remote computer's screen resolution to its original setting at any time during a remote access session.

To reduce the screen resolution on a remote computer:

On the Meeting Controls Panel, select the down arrow button (it is the last button on the Meeting Controls Panel). Then choose Reduce Screen Resolution to Match This Computer.

Note:

- If you reduce the screen resolution a remote computer during a sharing session, the Access Anywhere Agent restores the resolution to its original setting once you end the session.
- You can specify whether or not the remote computer's screen resolution is reduced automatically once you connect to the computer remotely. For details, refer to the Access Anywhere User's Guide.

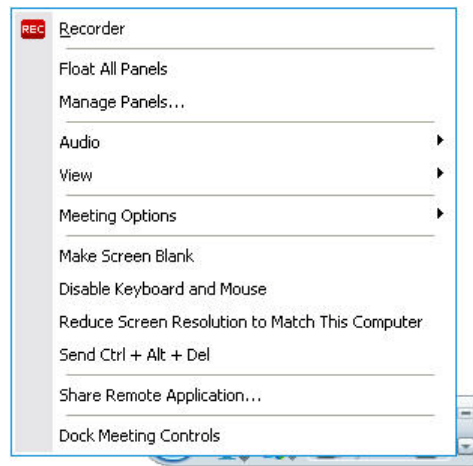

Disabling and enabling the keyboard when sharing a remote computer

Host or Presenter only

While sharing a remote computer, you can disable the keyboard and mouse on the remote computer, thereby preventing anyone from using the computer while you are accessing it remotely. You can re-enable a remote computer's keyboard and mouse at any time.

To disable or enable a remote computer's keyboard and mouse:

On the Meeting Controls Panel, select the down arrow. Then choose Disable Keyboard and Mouse.

The down arrow is located at the end of the Meeting Controls Panel.

A check mark next to the command indicates that the keyboard and mouse are disabled. If no check mark appears, the keyboard and mouse are enabled.

Note:

- If you disable a remote computer's keyboard and mouse during a sharing session, the Access Anywhere Agent re-enables them once you end the session.
- You can specify whether or not the remote computer's keyboard and mouse are disabled automatically once you connect to the computer remotely. For details, refer to the Access Anywhere User's Guide.

To hide or display the contents on a remote computer's screen:

On the Meeting Controls Panel, select the down arrow (the last button on the panel) and then choose Make Screen Blank.

A check mark next to the command indicates that the contents on the remote computer's screen are not visible. If no check mark appears, the contents on the remote computer's screen are visible.

Note:

- If you make a remote computer's screen blank during a sharing session, the Access Anywhere Agent displays the contents on the screen once you end the session.

While sharing software, you can temporarily pause sharing to freeze attendees' views.

If you want to return attendees to the Meeting window while sharing software, pausing shared software conserves resources on your computer and bandwidth for your Internet connection. This option is also useful if you do not want attendees to see certain actions that you take with shared software.

You can resume sharing to restore attendees' views of shared software at any time.

To pause software sharing:

Select the Pause button, located to the right of the Stop button.

The word "Paused" now appears in the panel. A short message is displayed indicating that the participant view would be frozen until you resume sharing. Additionally, the Pause button text changes to Resume.

- Application
- Desktop (if available)
- Web browser

A participant who has remote control of shared software can interact with it fully. While a participant is controlling shared software, the presenter's mouse pointer is inactive.

Rules of thumb for controlling shared software:

- Any participant can send a request to control the software remotely. More (on page 257)
- The presenter can then grant control to the participant. More (on page 257)

- Alternatively, the presenter can automatically grant control of shared software to any participant who requests remote control. More (on page 258)
- The presenter can stop a participant from remotely controlling shared software at any time. More (on page 259)

Caution: A participant who has remote control of the presenter's desktop can run any programs and access any files on the computer that the presenter has not protected with a password.

Sharing applications with detailed color (Windows)

For Windows users only

By default, Meeting Manager sends images of shared software using 16-bit color mode, which is the equivalent of your computer's "High Color" (16-bit) setting. This mode provides an accurate representation of color for most shared applications. However, if your shared application contains detailed color images-such as color gradients-the color may not appear accurately on participants' screens. For example, color gradients may appear and color "bands."

If the accuracy and resolution of color in a shared application is important, you can turn on True Color mode in Meeting Manager. Using this mode, however, may affect the performance of application sharing.

When using True Color mode, you can select one of the following options:

- Better imaging (no image compression)
- Better performance (some image compression)

"Performance" refers to the "speed" at which images appear on participant screens, and "imaging" refers to the quality of the color in shared images.

Note: Before turning on True Color mode, ensure that your monitor display is set to True Color (either 24- or 32-bit color). For more information about setting options for your monitor, refer to Windows Help.

To turn on True Color mode:

- 1 If you are currently sharing an application, stop your sharing session.
- 2 On the Meeting menu, choose Meeting Options.
The Meeting Options dialog box appears.
- 3 Select the True Color Mode tab.
- 4 Select Enable True Color mode.
- 5 Select one of the following options:

- Better imaging
 - Better performance
- 6 Select OK or Apply.

Sharing applications with detailed color (Mac)

For Mac users only

Before sharing an application or your desktop, you can choose one of the following display modes:

- Better performance: The default mode. Lets you display your content faster than you do using the better image quality mode.
- Better image quality: Lets you display your content with better image quality. In this mode, your shared content may take longer time to display than in the better performance mode.

Note: Changing the display mode does not affect presentation or document sharing.

To choose a display mode for your shared desktop or applications:

- 1 In the Meeting window, on the Meeting Center menu, choose Preferences.
The Preferences dialog box appears.
- 2 Select Display.

The display mode options appear.

- 3 Select Better performance or Better image quality, as appropriate.

Tips for sharing software

The following tips can help you to share software more effectively:

- Application sharing only: To save time during a meeting, ensure that any applications you intend to share are open on your computer. At the appropriate time during the meeting, you can then quickly begin sharing an application, without waiting for the application to start.
- If participants cannot see all of the shared software without scrolling their sharing windows, they can adjust their views of the shared software. They can reduce the size of the shared software in decrements, or scale it to fit inside their sharing windows.
- To improve the performance of software sharing, close all applications that you do not need to use or share on your computer. Doing so conserves processor usage and memory on your computer, thus helping to ensure that Meeting Manager can send images of shared software quickly during a meeting. Also, to ensure that a maximum amount of bandwidth is available for software sharing, close any applications that use bandwidth, such as instant messaging or chat programs, and programs that receive streaming audio or video from the Web.
- If you are sharing an application for which the rendering of color on participants' screen is important, you can improve color quality by turning on True Color mode. For details, see Sharing applications with detailed color (on page 260).
- Application and Web browser sharing only: Avoid covering a shared application or Web browser with another window on your computer's desktop. A crosshatched pattern appears in participant sharing windows where the other window is covering the shared application or browser.
- Application and Web browser sharing only: If you want to switch your display between shared software and the Meeting window, you can pause software sharing before you return to the Meeting window, and then resume sharing once you return to the shared application. Pausing software sharing conserves processor usage and memory on your computer while you view the Meeting window. For details, see Pausing and resuming software sharing. (on page 243)
- Application and Web browser sharing only: If you have more than one monitor, when you share an application or web browser, the participants can see it on whichever monitor you are displaying it. If you move the application or Web browser to another monitor, it is still visible to the participants. If you are sharing more than one application, the participants will see the best view if you make sure the applications are displaying on the same monitor.

- Because software sharing requires additional bandwidth during a meeting, it is recommended that you use a dedicated, high-speed Internet connection when sharing software. However, if participants are using dial-up Internet connections, they may notice a delay in viewing or controlling shared software. If you want to share a document, such as a Microsoft Word or Excel document, you can improve the meeting experience for these participants by using document sharing instead of application sharing.

Polling Attendees

During a meeting, you can poll participants by presenting them with a questionnaire. Conducting a poll can be useful for gathering feedback from participants, allowing participants to vote on a proposal, testing participant knowledge of a topic, and so on.

During the meeting, the presenter is responsible for:

- Preparing a poll questionnaire More... (on page 265)
- Conducting a poll during the meeting More... (on page 269)

After closing a poll, the presenter can:

- View poll results More... (on page 270)
- Share poll results with participants More... (on page 271)

The poll results you can share during a meeting are anonymous. However, Meeting Center records responses from each participant, in addition to group results, and allows you to save those individual and group results. For more information, see Saving results of a poll (on page 273).

Viewing poll results

Meeting Center bases the percentage for each answer on the total number of participants in the meeting, not the total number of participants who submitted answers in the poll.

The screenshot shows a software window titled 'Poll Questions:'. It contains a table with three columns: 'Questions', 'Results', and 'Bar Graph'. The table lists three poll questions and their corresponding results and bar graphs.

Questions	Results	Bar Graph
1. What is your favorite color?
a. blue	2/4(50%)
b. red	1/4(25%)
c. green	0/4(0%)
d. black	0/4(0%)

3. Please give us feedback about...

Below the table, there is a 'Polling status' section showing '3 of 4 attendees have responded', 'Remaining time: 2:04', and 'Time limit: 10:00'. There is also a 'Share with attendees' section with a checked box for 'Poll results' and an 'Apply' button. At the bottom, there are three buttons: 'New Poll', 'Edit Questions', and 'Open Poll'.

The Results column indicates the percentage of attendees who chose each answer. The Bar Graph column provides a graphic representation of each percentage in the Results column.

Sharing poll results with participants

After you close a poll, you can share the poll results with participants.

The poll results you can share during a meeting are anonymous. However, Meeting Center records responses from each participant, in addition to group results, and allows you to save those individual and group results. For more information, see Saving results of a poll (on page 273).

To share the results of a poll:

In the Share with attendees section on your Polling panel, select Poll results, and then click Apply.

The results of the poll appear in the participants' Polling panels, just as they do on your Polling panel.

Transferring and Downloading Files During a Meeting

During a meeting, you can publish files that reside on your computer. Meeting participants can then download the published files to their computers or local servers. Publishing files is useful if you want to provide participants with a document, a copy of your presentation, an application, and so on.

Files that you publish reside only on your computer - not on a server. Thus, your published files are always protected from unauthorized access during a meeting.

Choosing a note taker

If the single note taker or closed captions option is set for a meeting, you can designate any participant or closed captionist to be the note taker. When scheduling a meeting, you can set the notes option, or a presenter can set the notes option during a meeting.

To designate a note taker for Windows:

To select another participant to transcribe, select the participant's name on the Participants panel; then right-click (Windows) or select ctrl and then click (Mac) and then select Change Role To >Closed Captionist.

About taking notes

During a meeting, one or more meeting participants with access to the notes feature can take notes on the Notes or Closed Caption panel in the Meeting window. Only one participant performs closed captioning.

If all participants are allowed to take notes, they cannot publish their notes to others during the meeting. However, participants can save their notes at any time during the meeting.

The meeting host can select the single note taker during the meeting. A single note taker can publish notes at any time during the meeting or send a meeting transcript containing the notes to all participants.

If needed, the host can also select a closed captionist. A closed captionist can publish captions in real-time during the meeting and can also send a transcript containing the captions to all participants.

Taking personal notes

If the meeting host or presenter has selected the option to allow participants to take personal notes, you can type your notes on the Notes panel in the Meeting window.

To take personal notes:

- 1 In the Meeting window, open the Notes panel.
- 2 Type your notes in the box.

Note: You can save your notes to a text file on your computer. For details, see Saving notes to a file (on page 285).

Taking public notes (meeting minutes)

If the meeting host has designated you as the single note taker for a meeting, you can type notes on the Notes panel in your Meeting window. Your notes are not visible to other meeting participants until you publish them. You can publish your notes at any time during the meeting, or you can send your notes in a meeting transcript to all participants.

To take public notes:

- 1 In the Meeting window, open the Notes panel.
- 2 Type your notes in the box.
- 3 Optional. To publish your notes, so they appear in each participant's Notes panel, click Publish.

Note: If the Notes panel is not selected on a participant's Meeting window once you publish notes, the participant sees an alert.

For information about selecting a note-taking option during a meeting, see Specifying note-taking options for a meeting (on page 280).

For details about sending public notes in a meeting transcript, see Sending a meeting transcript to participants (on page 286).

Providing closed captions

If the meeting host has designated you as the closed captionist for a meeting, you can type captions on the Closed Captions panel in your Meeting window. To type captions, you can use either a standard keyboard, or a steno keyboard and machine translation software.

Your captions are visible to other meeting participants in real-time, one line at a time. You can also send your captions in a meeting transcript to all participants.

To transcribe closed captions:

- 1 Open the Closed Caption panel.
- 2 Type your captions in the box.

- 3 Once you type a line of captions, do either to publish your captions on each participant's Closed Caption panel:
 - Press the Enter key on your computer's keyboard.

Note:

- If the Closed Captions panel is not selected on a participant's Meeting window once you publish a line of captions, the participant is alerted that captions are available.
- You can save your captions to a text file on your computer. For details, see Saving notes to a file (on page 285).
- For details about sending closed captions in a meeting transcript, see Sending a meeting transcript to participants.

Saving notes to a file

If you are taking personal or public notes (meeting minutes) or closed captions during a meeting you can save your notes or closed captions to a text file on your computer. You can also save any notes or closed captions that another note taker or closed captionist publishes on your Notes or Closed Caption panel.

Once you save new notes to a file, you can save changes to the notes or save a copy of the notes to another file.

To save new notes:

- Shared presentations or documents
- Chat messages
- Notes
- Poll questionnaire
- Poll results

To save all information at once, on the File menu, choose Save All. In this case, the files are saved under their default file names. Thus, if you have already saved a file using another name, it is not overwritten.

Sending a meeting transcript to participants

You can send a transcript of a meeting to all participants at any time during the meeting. The transcript is an email message that contains general information, such as:

- Meeting topic
- Meeting number

- Meeting starting and ending times
- URL for the Meeting Information page for the meeting on your meeting service Web site
- List of participants who joined the meeting (audio-only participants are not listed)
- Meeting agenda
- Any public notes that you took during the meeting

Optionally, you can attach any of these files to the transcript, if you saved them during the meeting:

- Shared documents
- Chat
- Public notes that you took or that the note taker published during the meeting
- Poll questionnaire
- Poll results

To send a meeting transcript to participants:

- 1 In the Meeting window, on the File menu, choose Send Transcript.
If you have saved any files during the meeting, the Send Transcript dialog box appears, allowing you to attach the files to the transcript email message.
If you have not saved any files during the meeting, a transcript email message opens.
- 2 If the Send Transcript dialog box appears, select the check box for each file that you want to attach to the transcript, and then click OK.
The transcript email message opens.
- 3 Review the email message and make any changes that you want.
- 4 Send the email message.

Note:

- The transcript is sent to all participants who provided their email addresses when joining the meeting, whether or not they are still attending the meeting when you send the transcript. Audio-only participants will not be listed in the transcript.
- For security purposes, a participant who receives a transcript email message cannot see the email addresses for the other participants.
- The transcript contains notes only if you are the meeting host, the public note taker, or the closed captionist, and you have saved the notes to a file. If all participants can take private notes, the transcript email message does not include your private notes, and the option to attach your notes in a file is not available.

- If you saved notes or closed captions to a file, the transcript email message and the attached notes file contain the latest version of notes that you saved.
- If you are the meeting host and end the meeting-and you have not sent a transcript-a message appears, asking you if you want to send a transcript.

An online meeting remains on your My Meetings page until you delete it. When scheduling a meeting, you can choose to automatically delete the meeting from your list of meetings once both of these conditions occur:

- You start and end the meeting.
- The scheduled time for the meeting has passed.

However, if you required registration for a scheduled meeting, the meeting remains in your list until you remove it. That way, you can still view information about attendees who registered for the meeting at any time after you host the meeting.

To remove a meeting from your list of meetings on your My Meetings page, you must cancel the meeting by deleting it on this page.

For details about the options on the My WebEx Meetings page, see About the My WebEx Meetings page (on page 295).

get an overview of what reports you can generate from your WebEx service Web site	About generating reports (on page 362)
generate usage reports that provide information about each session that you have hosted on your site	Generating reports (on page 363)

About generating reports

If your user account includes the reports option, you can view the following reports:

Note:

- For some reports, if you click on the report link within 15 minutes after the meeting ends, you will see a preliminary version of that report. The preliminary report provides quick access to data before the final, more accurate data is available. The preliminary report contains only a subset of the information that is available in the final report.
- When the final, more accurate data is available, which is usually 24 hours after the meeting ends, the preliminary report is replaced by the final report.
- You can download both preliminary reports and final reports as comma-separated values (CSV) files.

General Meeting Usage reports

These reports contain information about each online session that you host. You can view the following reports:

- Summary Usage report: Contains summary information about each meeting including topic, date, start and end time, duration, number of attendees you invited, number of invited attendees who attended, and type of voice conference you used.

Note: Initially, this report appears as a Preliminary Usage Summary Report, but after the final, more accurate usage data is available, it is replaced by the Final Usage Summary Report.

- Summary Usage report CSV (comma-separated values) file: Contains additional details about each meeting, including the minutes that all participants were connected to the meeting and tracking codes.
- Session Detail report: Contains detailed information about each participant in a meeting, including the time the participant joined and left the meeting, the attentiveness during the meeting, and any information that the attendee provided.

Note: Initially, this report appears as a Preliminary Session Detail Report, but after the final, more accurate session detail data is available, it is replaced by the Final Session Detail Report.

Access Anywhere usage report

This report shows information about the computers that you access remotely, including the date and start and end times for each session.

Generating reports

You can generate usage reports that provide information about each online meeting that you have hosted on your site.

You can export or download the data to a comma-separated values (CSV) file which you can then open in a spreadsheet program such as Microsoft Excel. You can also print reports in a printer-friendly format.

To generate a report:

- 1 Log in to your WebEx service Web site, and then click My WebEx.
- 2 Click My Reports.
The My Reports page appears.
- 3 Choose the type of report you want to generate.
- 4 Specify your search criteria, such as a date range for which you want to view report data.
- 5 Click Display Report.
- 6 To change the order in which report data is sorted, click the column headings.
The report data is sorted by the column that has an arrow next to the column heading. To reverse the sort order, click the column heading. To sort using another column, click that column's heading.
- 7 Do one of the following, as appropriate:
 - If you are viewing a general meeting usage report and want to display the report in a format that is suitable for printing, click Printer-Friendly Format.
- 8 If you are viewing the usage report for a meeting and want to view the content in the report, click the link for the meeting name.
- 9 To export the report data in comma-separated values (CSV) format, click Export Report or Export.
- 10 If available, click links on the report to display more details.
