S7 Programming and Troubleshooting Course

Course content:

- The S7 Programming and Troubleshooting Course covers the Simatic S7-300 and S7-400 range of hardware and S7 engineering software.
- Basic program structure and emphasis is given to practical exercises covering digital and analog programming, troubleshooting and monitoring.
- Compliance with IEC 61131.
- Overviews of Profibus and HMI.

Designed for:

- Engineers, technicians, consultants, electricians.

Course description:

- S7 system overview and installation of hardware.
- Programming structure, basic principles of S7 instructions using Ladder, Function Block Diagram and Statement List.
- S7 software tools for testing, error detection and troubleshooting.
- Programming archiving and memory card operations.

Pre-requisite

- Basic knowledge of control and PLC concepts.
- PC and Windows experience is essential.

Booking details:

Course Code	S7-7PRO1
Duration	4 Days
Delivery	Training locations in all major capitals. On site training is available (please call for separate pricing)
Investment	$2,300 + $230.00 GST includes training material (Prices may change without notice)
Phone	Siemens Customer Care Centre 137222 Or our Training Co-ordinator on 03 9721 7234
Email	SITRAIN.au@siemens.com

SIEMENS