CURRENT INFORMATION SUMMARY

Opening Instructions for the
KODAK ADVANTIX Flash One-Time-Use Camera
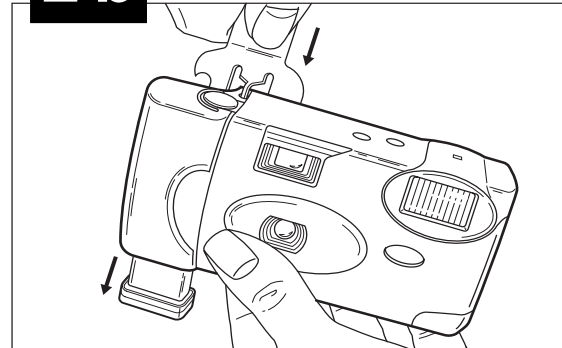

Wear eye protection when opening all cameras.

1 Wind Off

Frame Counter — Access Hole — Shutter Button

Thumbwheel

- Check the Frame Counter window, X's must be visible.
- Check the Access Hole, it must be black.
- If not, grip camera, press Shutter Button and turn Thumbwheel until it stops.

2 b
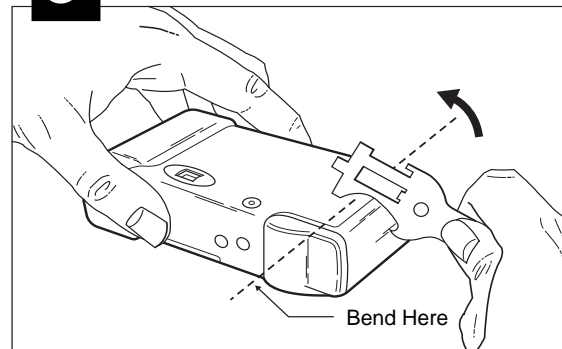

- Push down until film cassette pops out.

2 a Remove Film

Access Hole

- Insert the punch end of the opening tool into the Access Hole.
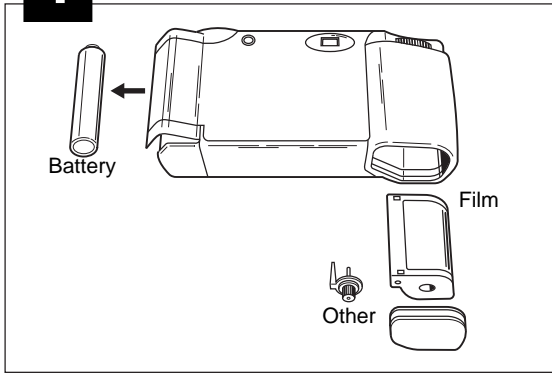

NOTE: The film cassette door is closed only when the Access Hole is black.

3 Remove Battery

Bend Here

- Remove cardboard cover.
- Insert special tool into end slot.
- Use tool to bend cover back and remove battery.

CAUTION: To avoid injury, use tool carefully. Do not hit camera against object to open or the film door may open and fogg the film.

4 Opened Camera with Film and Battery

Battery

Film

Other

5
• Place in recycle bin.
• Return to Kodak for recycling.

⚠

CAUTION: This camera body contains a high voltage capacitor and circuit board. To avoid electric shock, do not pry apart the front and back sections of camera. Remove only film and battery from their respective compartments. If sections of the camera are separated, do not touch the circuit board.