6.0 Caring for the Exterior of Your Stainless Electri-Chef® Grill Continued

DANGER

NEVER ATTEMPT TO SERVICE OR REPAIR YOUR GRILL WHILE PLUGGED INTO THE ELECTRIC OUTLET.

WARNING

Disconnect from electric outlet before cleaning or any service work is performed on this grill unit.

Cleaning Exterior

Regular Cleaning...

- Wash down the surface regularly using water containing soap or mild detergents.
- Always rinse the surface with fresh water after cleaning.
- Polishing the surface with a soft dry cloth can complete a thorough cleaning operation.
- When wiping or polishing stainless steel, always follow the direction of the original grain or "brush" finish.

Cleaning Aids...

- Never use abrasive materials such as scouring pads or wire wool.
- Use a brush or soft damp cloth to remove loose deposits.
- Use a cream cleanser and soft cloth for stubborn deposits.

All grades of stainless steel can stain and discolor as a result of long term surface deposits and can never be accepted as completely maintenance free. In order to achieve maximum corrosion resistance, the surface of the stainless steel must be kept clean. Surface contamination and the formation of deposits must be prevented. These deposits may be minute particles of iron or rust from other sources used on the building or new premises and not removed until after the stainless steel items have been fixed. Industrial and even naturally occurring atmospheric conditions can produce deposits which can be equally corrosive, e.g. salt deposits from marine conditions. Strong acid solutions are sometimes used to clean masonry and tiling of buildings but these should NEVER be permitted to come into contact with metals, including stainless steel.
