Only from NEC

There's one thing computer enthusiasts have agreed on for more than 15 years -- NEC is the brand of choice for computer monitors. Combining cutting-edge technology, true-to-life on-screen images and sleek design, NEC monitors bring a new level of performance to your desktop. The 15" NEC LCD1515, 17" NEC LCD1715 and 19" NEC LCD1915X monitors have been engineered to produce crisp, brilliant images that enrich games, photos and the Internet. The LCD1915X further enhances your time in front of the computer with comforting features such as a spacious screen and tilt and swivel flexibility as well as the ability to work seamlessly in either digital or analog environments.

NEC LCD 15 Series monitors also use 60% less power than comparable CRT monitors, which significantly lowers your total cost of ownership. Outstanding performance and design, energy-efficient operation and an award-winning brand make this series a smart investment.
