Dell Protects Your Image with Service & Support.

You and your work will look good over the long haul with service and support from Dell. Your Dell printer includes all of the benefits of Dell's 24x7 toll-free technical phone support and Next-Business-Day Advanced Exchange Service³ for one year. Dell also gives you the option to extend your NBD Advanced Exchange Service³ to help further protect your investment. Other service choices include leasing and asset tagging. Certain restrictions apply.

Key Benefits:

24x7 Toll-Free Technical Phone Support: You're just a phone call away from help with our 24x7 Toll-Free Technical Phone Support.

NBD Advanced Exchange Service: One-year of our Next-Business-Day Advanced Exchange Service³ helps maximize printer uptime.

Two-year Ink Cartridge Limited Warranty⁴: You're further protected with a limited warranty on your ink cartridges.

Service Options: You have the choice to extend the benefits of your Next-Business-Day Advanced Exchange Service³ to up to three years.

Single Point of Accountability: Dell gives you the convenience and ease of a single point of contact for all of your service needs — direct from Dell.

All-In-One Printers A920 / 922 / A960

Standard Service

- 24x7 Toll-Free Tech Phone Support
- 1-year NBD Advanced Exchange³
- 2-year Ink Cartridge Limited Warranty⁴

Extended Service Options

- 2- and 3-year NBD Advanced Exchange³

Next-Business-Day Advanced Exchange Service³

If you have an issue with your Dell printer that cannot be resolved over the phone, we will ship you a replacement unit the next business day. All you do is set up your new printer, ship back the defective unit (prepaid by Dell) and continue to enjoy the benefits of your Dell printer.

Asset Tagging

We will apply standard or custom asset tags for your printers and labels for your packing boxes. Information on asset tags can include: customer name, service tag, purchase order number, order number, order date, model number, shipping address, system component data and/or customer-supplied information.

Leasing

Dell Financial Services has a customized lease or purchase program for Dell printers to fit your needs and budget. For more information, see <http://www.dellfinancialservices.com/solutions/> and talk to your Dell sales representative today.

Recycling Made Easy

Dell understands the hurdles of recycling printers from the home and office environment. So we offer a recycling program that meets these unique needs. First, we take the burden off of you by making recycling your printers and toner easy, safe and affordable. It's just one more way we try to save you time and money.

Visit www.dell.com/recycling for details.

- Each Dell printer includes instructions for returning an old printer for recycling
- Dell ink cartridges include a prepaid shipping envelope to return the used cartridge for recycling
- Dell pays shipping charges for printer and ink recycling
