IC445C

This device complies with part 15 of FCC Rules. Operation is subject to the following two conditions: (1) this device may not cause harmful interference, and (2) this device must accept any interference received, including interference that may cause undesired operation.

This equipment has been tested and found to comply with the limits for a Class B digital device, pursuant to part 15 of FCC Rules. These limits are designed to provide reasonable protection against harmful interference when the equipment is operated in a residential installation. This equipment generates, uses, and can radiate radio frequency energy and, if not installed and used in accordance with the instruction guide, may cause harmful interference to radio communications. However, there is no guarantee that interference will not occur in a particular installation. If this equipment does cause harmful interference to radio or television reception, which can be determined by ~~tuning the equipment~~ ~~of and on~~, the user is encouraged to try to correct the interference by one or more of the following measures:

- Reorient or relocate the receiving antenna.
- Increase the separation between the equipment and the receiver.
- Connect the equipment into an outlet on a circuit different from that to which the receiver is connected.
- Consult a service representative for help.

Properly shielded and grounded cables and connectors must be used in order to comply with FCC emission limits. Micro Innovations is not responsible for any radio or television interference caused by using other than recommended cables and connectors or by unauthorized changes or modifications to this equipment. Unauthorized changes or modifications could void the user's authority to operate the equipment.

Select Continue Anyway to complete the installation.

Continue to follow the on-screen prompts until your camera installation is complete. Click Finish to close the wizard.

Camera Care

Keep all beverages away from the camera working area and avoid any spills. Maintaining your Micro Webcam Matrix will ensure longer life and will minimize the chances of causing damage to your camera and computer. There are no user serviceable parts. Only Micro Innovations may service or repair this product.

Troubleshooting

- If your camera is not recognized in Windows, be sure to check that the USB connector is securely connected into the back of your computer. You may have installed the driver with the camera plugged in. Uninstall the driver, unplug the camera, and then reinstall the driver. Then reinstall the camera hardware as directed in the Hardware Installation section.
- You may have connected your camera while the computer was turned off. Turn your computer on, and disconnect and reconnect the USB connector.
- Windows 95 and Windows NT users: These operating systems do not support USB. This camera is not compatible with Windows 95 or Windows NT. This camera model is also not supported in Windows 98/98SE.

Helpful Hints

The following hints will help you achieve the best results with your Micro Webcam Matrix:

Camera placement

- Position the camera so that the subject is centered.
- Place the camera on a steady surface.

Lighting

- Use sufficient lighting.
- Place the light source behind the camera and facing the subject.
- Maintain a consistent lighting environment, i.e. do not mix fluorescent lighting and other lighting types.

Focus

- For a sharper image, adjust the focus of your Micro Webcam Matrix by rotating the focus ring located on the front of your camera.

Maintenance

- Keep the camera away from moisture and extreme temperature.
- Never use harsh or abrasive cleaners or organic solvents on the camera or on any of its parts.
- Never disassemble or touch the inside of the camera.

To Clean Your Camera Lens

- Blow gently on the lens to remove any dust and/or dirt.
- Wipe the lens gently with a soft lint-free cloth or an unthreaded lens-cleaning tissue.
- Do not use a cleaning solution unless it is designed specifically for camera lenses.
- Do not wipe the camera lens with chemically treated eyeglass lens tissues as they may scratch the lens.
